Good Morning Ms. Garcia,

Thank you for your letter dated July 21, 2026, regarding the above-referenced matter.

I write to inform you that the Complaint in Newanforbi v. Randstad US, LLC et al. was filed electronically with the Alameda County Superior Court on July 20, 2026 -- Case No. 26CV199902. Courtesy copies of the filed Complaint, Civil Case Cover Sheet, etc., are attached hereto for your convenience.

I am currently awaiting the Court Clerk's issuance of the Summons. Once the Summons is issued, I will effectuate proper service on each Defendant in accordance with California Code of Civil Procedure sections 415.10 and 416.10.

However, to facilitate the efficient resolution of this matter and to avoid unnecessary costs associated with formal service of process, I invite you to accept informal service of the Summons and Complaint on behalf of your client(s) upon issuance. Alternatively, you may file a Notice of Appearance on behalf of The RK Logistics Group, Inc., which would constitute a general appearance and be equivalent to personal service of summons under California Code of Civil Procedure section 410.50. I am also amenable to executing a Waiver of Service of Summons if that is your preference.

Please note that my claims against RK Logistics are unaffected by the arguments raised in your July 21 letter. The internal emails you attached—specifically Jack Altares' July 15 communication stating "we will not be able to move forward with him as a driver for RK"—confirm that RK Logistics made the final decision not to proceed with my placement. The InfoMart report, ordered under RK Logistics' own billing code and client package, identifies the sex offender registry listing as the sole adverse item, triggering a "NEEDS APPROVAL, PER CLIENT CRITERIA" flag that RK Logistics itself configured. Your assertion that the MVR was the basis for the decision is undermined by the timeline: the MVR was not available until July 15, while the InfoMart report was already in your possession on July 13.

I remain open to good-faith settlement discussions to resolve this matter without the need for further litigation. Any substantive settlement offers may be directed to this email address.

I look forward to your response regarding service.

Thank you,

Brendan Ngehsi Newanforbi
