Superior Court of California, Alameda County -- Case No. 26CV191136

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA TO THE CALIFORNIA HIGHWAY PATROL, its authorized certifying official, and G. Serrato in his official capacity, as applicable:

Pursuant to judgment entered [DATE] finding a specific material error or abuse in the April 20, 2026 denial of Petitioner's request for Form I-918 Supplement B, YOU ARE COMMANDED:

1. Set aside and vacate the April 20, 2026 refusal.

2. Within 30 calendar days after service of this writ, make a new determination on Petitioner's April 9, 2026 certification request under Penal Code section 679.10 and the specific findings and legal conclusions contained in the judgment. Do not repeat the following error determined by the Court: [INSERT THE ACTUAL FINDING IDENTIFIED IN THE ENTERED JUDGMENT; do not assume the officer report's walk-and-turn difference itself establishes this legal error].

3. In the renewed determination, apply the statutory definitions in subdivisions (c) and (d), separately consider victim helpfulness and the subdivision (h) presumption when qualifying victimhood is established, and do not make the availability of charges, an investigation or a conviction a prerequisite contrary to subdivision (k). If denying certification, comply with the written-notice duty in subdivision (i)(2). Consider the competent evidence as directed by the Court's binding findings, subject to otherwise lawful evidentiary and confidentiality rules.

4. Within 45 calendar days after service of this writ, file and serve a verified return reporting all acts taken to comply and attaching the renewed decision or executed certification, with legally necessary privacy redactions.

This writ does not predetermine lawful questions reserved for CHP on remand, compel disclosure of privileged documents, confer immigration status, award damages or revive other causes. The Court retains jurisdiction to determine compliance.

WITNESS the Honorable [JUDGE], Judge of the Superior Court. Issued _____; [COURT SEAL]. Clerk _____; Deputy _____.

Issue only with the entered Alternative B judgment identifying a proved reviewable error.
