Dear Mr. Li,

I write under Civil Local Rule 7-11(a) before filing administrative motions in two related Oakland cases, to ask whether you will stipulate.

I am one person. I use one PACER account (bngwanforbi). That account records my first name as "Brendan" and my last name as "Ngwa Nforbi." The two dockets do not match that account:

- 4:26-cv-05953-ASK (Serrato) identifies me as "Brendan Ngehsi Newanforbi."
- 4:26-cv-08271-ASK (Meza-Gonzalez / Melano) identifies me as "Nforbi."

Because of the mismatch, the CAND ECF Help Desk advised me on September 1, 2026 that it cannot link these cases to my account, and that the fix is to ask the Court to correct the names on the dockets first. The result is that I cannot e-file in either case and must file on paper.

I intend to ask the Court to state my name on both dockets as "Brendan Ngwa Nforbi." The request changes nothing else: no party is added, dropped, or substituted; no claim or allegation is amended; no deadline moves. Rule 25 is not implicated, because I am the same person before and after.

Would you stipulate as to both cases? If so, I will prepare a short stipulation and proposed order for your signature in each action. If you would rather I proceed by motion, or if you oppose, please tell me so I can state your position accurately in my Rule 7-11(a) declarations.

Thank you.
