Dear Brendan:

We recently made you aware that as part of our employment (including, as applicable, independent contractor assignment) eligibility process, The Hertz Corporation (Company) obtains consumer reports (commonly referred to as “background reports”). These background reports assist us in evaluating individuals for employment or independent contractor assignment.

Pursuant to your authorization and for purposes of evaluating your eligibility for employment or independent contractor assignment, Company obtained a background report about you from HireRight, LLC (HireRight). We are providing a copy of the background report that HireRight prepared for Company which you may access by clicking the link below. We are also enclosing a summary of your rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA).

Based on a review of the results of your background report and Company’s eligibility criteria, we are notifying you that there is information in your background report that may result in Company deciding not to offer you (or, as applicable, retain your) employment or an independent contractor assignment including the following specific information identified in your background report:

We also ask that you promptly let Company know directly if you believe that anything in your report is inaccurate or incomplete so that this can be taken into consideration, as appropriate, in connection with Company's eligibility determination.

To afford you an opportunity to review your background report, initiate a dispute investigation with HireRight regarding any information in the report (for example, if you believe any information in your report is inaccurate or incomplete), and voluntarily submit evidence of rehabilitation to Company, Company will not make a final decision on your employment or independent contractor assignment for at least five (5) business days from the date of this letter (unless a longer period is required by applicable law).

You have a right to respond to this notice before the Company's preliminary decision recinding the offer of employment becomes final. You may also submit any evidence in mitigation of the specific criminal information identified above, such as rehabilitation, to Company.
