UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

BRENDAN NGEHSI NEWANFORBI, Plaintiff, v. CAPTAIN G. SERRATO; and DOES 1-10, inclusive, Defendants.	Case No. 3:26-cv-05953-CRB ADMIN. MOTION TO CONFORM PLAINTIFF'S NAME ON THE DOCKET [Civil L.R. 7-11] Judge: Hon. Charles R. Breyer

ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO CONFORM PLAINTIFF'S NAME ON THE DOCKET

TO THE COURT AND TO CAPTAIN G. SERRATO, THROUGH COUNSEL:

Plaintiff Brendan Ngwa Nforbi, appearing in propria persona and presently identified on this docket as Brendan Ngehsi Newanforbi, moves under Civil Local Rule 7-11 for an administrative order conforming his name on the docket, the short title, and the CM/ECF party record. This is Plaintiff's request; it is not a Civil L.R. 7-12 stipulation.

I.

THE ECF HELP DESK CANNOT LINK THE PACER ACCOUNT UNTIL THE DOCKET MATCHES

On September 1, 2026, the Northern District of California ECF Help Desk advised Plaintiff that it cannot link this action to PACER login bngwanforbi until the docket reflects the name on the account, and that conforming a name on the docket requires a request to the Court. A true and correct copy of that written guidance is attached as Exhibit A. Upon the Clerk updating the party name on the docket, Plaintiff will request that the Help Desk link that login for pro se e-filing. This motion does not itself activate e-filing.

Good cause exists to conform the docket name so the login can be linked. E-filing will eliminate the delay inherent in mailing papers to the Clerk and to counsel; will ensure that filings appear on the docket on the day they are filed rather than days later; will allow defense counsel of record to receive immediate electronic service via NEF; and will avoid the transit, weekend, and holiday lag associated with paper mail.

II.

RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff requests that the Clerk be directed to amend the docket, the short title, the CM/ECF party record, and the caption of this action so that Plaintiff is identified as Brendan Ngwa Nforbi (first name: Brendan; last name: Ngwa Nforbi), matching Plaintiff's existing PACER account (login: bngwanforbi).

This docket currently records Plaintiff's name as Brendan Ngehsi Newanforbi. The request is that the Clerk conform the middle and last name token from Ngehsi Newanforbi to Ngwa Nforbi to match PACER login bngwanforbi, while the first name remains Brendan. Subsequent papers shall bear that conformed caption.

III.

THE TWO NAMES ARE ONE PERSON

Brendan Ngwa Nforbi is the same natural person previously and alternatively identified on this docket and related records as Brendan Ngehsi Newanforbi, Ngehsi Newanforbi, and Ngwa Nforbi.

The two name forms belong to one and the same person. This motion does not add, drop, or substitute any party. It is not a substitution of parties under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 25. It does not alter, amend, or modify any claim, cause of action, theory of liability, prayer for relief, or defense.

IV.

CIVIL L.R. 7-11

Conforming a pro se party's docket name to allow an official PACER e-filing account to be linked is a miscellaneous administrative matter appropriate for resolution under Civil Local Rule 7-11. A 35-day noticed motion under Civil L.R. 7-2 is unnecessary.

Pursuant to Civil L.R. 7-11(a), Plaintiff conferred with Deputy Attorney General Haiyang Allen Li, counsel of record for Defendant Captain G. Serrato. Mr. Li stated that Defendant does not believe a formal stipulation is required and will not oppose an administrative motion so long as the paper makes clear that "Nforbi" and "Newanforbi" are the same person. Section III above and the accompanying declaration explicitly make that confirmation. Counsel did not execute a Civil L.R. 7-12 stipulation; the accompanying declaration explains why a stipulation was not obtained and satisfies Civil L.R. 7-11(a).

V.

NOTHING ELSE MOVES

All prior filings, summonses, proofs of service, appearances, orders, and related-case determinations remain fully effective as to the same person. No party need be re-served by reason of this administrative change.

No other date, hearing, or deadline in this action is modified. Expressly unchanged, without limitation:

1. The November 20, 2026 hearing on Defendant's Motion to Dismiss (Dkt. 18, reset by Clerk's Notice Dkt. 30 to 10:00 a.m. Zoom before Judge Breyer);

2. Defendant's pending Motion to Dismiss (Dkt. 18) and Plaintiff's filed Opposition (Dkt. 20);

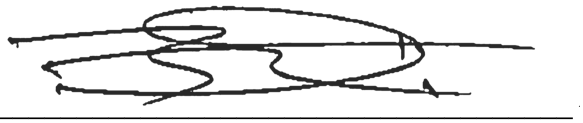

3. The continued initial Case Management Conference (continued by Dkt. 25 to fourteen days after the final order on Dkt. 18); and

4. The Rule 26(a)(1) disclosures, Joint Case Management Statement, and ADR certification dates reset by Dkt. 25 to run from that continued conference.

A declaration in support, Exhibit A, and a proposed order accompany this motion.

Dated: September 15, 2026

Respectfully submitted,

BRENDAN NGWA NFORBI

Plaintiff, In Propria Persona

(presently on this docket as Brendan Ngehsi Newanforbi)
