TO THE CLERK OF THE COURT AND TO THE HONORABLE VINCE PARRETT:

Plaintiff BRENDAN NGWA NFORBI, appearing in propria persona, submits this notice for one limited purpose: to correct the title of this action as it appears in the Court's register of actions and on the Court's public case portal, which does not match the caption of the Verified Complaint the Court accepted for filing. The correction is clerical. It seeks no substantive relief, affects no party's rights, and requires no hearing.

I.

THE CAPTION ON FILE

1. Plaintiff filed this action on August 26, 2026 by electronic submission through One Legal (Filing Order #29111713; Confirmation #35442871; Court Transaction #24948831). The Court accepted the filing the same day, assigned Case No. 26CV501995, issued the Summons, and returned the conformed Verified Complaint, Civil Case Cover Sheet, and clerk-stamped Civil Lawsuit Notice.

2. The conformed Verified Complaint names the defendants in the following order: ROSS STORES, INC., a Delaware corporation; ROSS DRESS FOR LESS, INC., a Virginia corporation; DOE 1; and DOES 2 through 20, inclusive. The issued SUM-100 Summons and the CM-010 Civil Case Cover Sheet name the same defendants in the same order. Ross Stores, Inc. is, and has been since filing, the first-named defendant.

II.

THE TITLE IN THE REGISTER OF ACTIONS

3. The Court's public case portal, printed September 8, 2026, states the title of this action as "Brendan Ngwa Nforbi vs Does 2 through 20 et al." The portal lists the defendant party records in this order: "Does 2 through 20"; "Doe 1"; "Ross Dress for Less, Inc., a Virginia corporation"; "Ross Stores, Inc., a Delaware corporation."

4. The order of those party records is the source of the error. The case title is generated from the first-listed defendant record, and the defendant records were transmitted to the Court in the party-entry step of Plaintiff's August 26, 2026 electronic submission in an order that does not track the Complaint. The result is a case title in which the fictitiously named defendants -- who are unidentified, unnamed in the caption, and unserved -- stand ahead of the two corporate defendants actually sued by name. The pleadings themselves are correct; only the Court's record of the party order is not.

III.

THE CORRECTION SOUGHT

5. In a complaint, "the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties." (Code Civ. Proc., sec. 422.40.) California Rules of Court, rule 2.111(4) requires that the name of each party begin on a separate line in the title of an initial complaint, and permits later papers to carry a short title "stating the name of the first party on each side, with appropriate indication of other parties." The Complaint on file complies with both. Plaintiff asks only that the Court's record of the case follow the caption it already has.

6. Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Clerk:

(a) correct the title of this action in the register of actions and on the public case portal to "Brendan Ngwa Nforbi v. Ross Stores, Inc., et al.";

(b) re-sequence the defendant party records to track the Verified Complaint: (1) Ross Stores, Inc., a Delaware corporation; (2) Ross Dress for Less, Inc., a Virginia corporation; (3) Doe 1; and (4) Does 2 through 20, inclusive; and

(c) confirm the correction, so that Plaintiff may serve papers bearing a title that matches the Court's record.

7. No party is prejudiced. As of the date of this notice, no defendant has been served and no defendant has appeared. Plaintiff does not seek to add, drop, substitute, or rename any party; the Doe defendants remain unidentified and will be substituted, if at all, by amendment under Code of Civil Procedure section 474. Nothing in this notice changes the Complaint, the Summons, the deadline to serve, or the February 11, 2027 case management conference.

8. If the Court prefers that this request be presented by ex parte application, by noticed motion, or on a local form, Plaintiff will promptly submit it in that form.

Dated: September 9, 2026

Respectfully submitted,

BRENDAN NGWA NFORBI
