Ms. Stanzick and Mr. Drury:

I am the plaintiff, in pro per, in the above action. I have your names from the proof of service attached to Morgan Lewis's August 24, 2026 notice of appearance for Amazon, and your addresses from your firm biographies. This is professional correspondence only; it is not service of process.

Accurate Background LLC was served July 31, 2026 and its responsive pleading is due today. The first attachment offers a 14-day extension, through and including September 14, 2026, as to Accurate Background only. Please confirm by reply e-mail by 5:00 p.m. Pacific Time today.

The second attachment is my opening demand to settle as to Accurate Background alone — $250,000.00 — with a response requested by September 11, 2026. It is a compromise communication under Evidence Code section 1152 and Federal Rule of Evidence 408, with one exception stated on its face: Section V is a statutory request for my file under Civil Code sections 1786.10 and 1786.22 and 15 U.S.C. section 1681g, and stands whether or not this case settles. Please treat that request as made today.

Please also confirm whether you are authorized to accept service and consent to electronic service under Code of Civil Procedure section 1010.6.

Brendan Ngehsi Newanforbi

Mr. Newanforbi,

Thank you for your email.

As this matter has been removed to federal court, Accurate's responsive pleading in federal court is due by next Tuesday, September 8 (there is a one-week post-removal deadline, but day seven falls on Labor Day here). The state court can take no further action on a removed case.

We appreciate your offer of an extension of time for our responsive pleading so that we can discuss your offer with our client. Please confirm you are amenable to a two-week extension of time through September 22 and we will provide you with our response during that time period.

We can also confirm that we can accept service on behalf of Accurate at these emails.

Thank you,

John Drury
