01/06/2026	51	NOTICE of Filing Consolidated/Joint Discovery Statement by Michael E. Sullivan, Jr. (gww) (Entered: 01/06/2026)
01/08/2026		ORDER: The Court has reviewed the parties' Joint Discovery Dispute Statement regarding Defendant's responses to requests for production. Defendant objected to several requests, but [a]ny ground not stated in a timely objection is waived unless the Court, for good cause, excuses the failure. Jones v. Mercedes-Benz USA, LLC, No. 1:22-cv-2628, 2024 WL 3385205, at *2 (N.D. Ga. May 22, 2024). Defendant concedes that his responses, and therefore his objections, were untimely. Furthermore, the Court finds thatwhile deadlines near holidays may be inconvenient for partiessuch circumstances on their own do not establish good cause to excuse the failure to meet the deadline. Defendants objections are therefore waived, and his responses are consequently incomplete. Defendant is therefore DIRECTED to supplement his responses no later than two weeks from the date of this order. Defendant is expected to provide all non-privileged responsive information that is readily obtainable. Ordered by Judge J. P. Boulee on 1/8/2026. (gww) (Entered: 01/08/2026)

01/23/2026		ORDER: The Court is in receipt of the parties' filings related to a discovery dispute. [Doc. 55]; [Doc. 54]. This Court's standing order requires parties to a discovery dispute to meet and confer in good faith prior to bringing any dispute to the court. [Doc. 3, p. 25]. If a dispute still exists, the order requires parties to file a joint discovery dispute statement not to exceed six pages, double-spaced. Id. Here, the parties met and conferred on January 14, 2026. Plaintiff then filed a unilateral discovery dispute statement on January 16, 2026. Good faith resolution of a discovery dispute requires a reasonable time period for each party to draft its portion of a joint statement. Two days is not a reasonable amount of time. Additionally, Plaintiff's unilateral filing (excluding exhibits) exceeds six pages. Plaintiff attempts to style his filing as two separate discovery disputes to avoid the six-page limit. This is improper. Because of these deficiencies, the Court will not consider these filings. The parties are DIRECTED to meet and confer again, in good faith, regarding this dispute. If this meeting is not successful in resolving the dispute, the parties may then file a joint discovery dispute statement that complies with the requirements of this Court's standing order. The parties are reminded to accord each other a reasonable time to draft their portions of any joint statement. So ordered by Judge J. P. Boulee on January 23, 2026. (jkl) (Entered: 01/23/2026)

01/28/2026		ORDER: The Court is in receipt of Defendant's Emergency Motion to Stay [Doc. 60]. Defendant seeks a stay of these proceedings based on purported investigations against him by the IRS and the Georgia Bar. The only fact supporting the existence of such investigations is that both entities are listed as "interested parties" on the docket for this case. This appears, however, to be the result of Plaintiff listing these entities as interested parties in his Certificate of Interested Persons, [Doc. 21], and nothing in that filing indicates that any investigation is ongoing. Absent any other facts indicating that criminal or quasi-criminal proceedings exist against Defendant, the emergency motion for stay is DENIED. Defendant also seeks an injunction against Plaintiff to restrain him from communicating with Defendant's former clients and from revealing attorney-client information or attorney work product. The facts alleged in support of this request are vague. More fundamentally, these issues do not appear related to the claims at issue in this case. Accordingly, the Court DENIES the requested relief. See Kaimowitz v. Orlando, 122 F.3d 41, 43 (11th Cir. 1997) ("A district court should not issue an injunction when the injunction in question is not of the same character, and deals with a matter lying wholly outside the issues in the suit."). 02/20/2026		ORDER: The Court is in receipt of Plaintiff's Motion for Sanctions [Doc. 71]. This motion seeks sanctions under Rule 11 for alleged false certifications related to discovery materials. Per this Court's Standing Order, parties must "submit their discovery disputes to the Court before filing discovery motions (including motions to compel, motions for protective order and motions for sanctions)." [Doc. 3, p. 25]. No dispute related to the allegations in the motion for sanctions has been filed. The motion is therefore DENIED without prejudice for failure to follow the Court's standing order. The Court recognizes Plaintiff is proceeding pro se, but pro se parties are still required to follow the Court's orders. And the Court has already reminded Plaintiff of the requirements surrounding discovery disputes in a prior Order. [Docket Entry dated Jan. 23, 2026]. Plaintiff will be expected to follow the Court's orders going forward. So ordered by Judge J. P. Boulee on February 20, 2026. (jkl) (Entered: 02/20/2026)
