KATIE PALACIOS and HOPE PROGRAM

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

COUNTY OF SAN JOAQUIN

BRENDAN NGEHSI NEWANFORBI, Plaintiff, v. KATIE PALACIOS, Clinical Director, HOPE Program (Stockton, California), an individual; HOPE PSYCHOTHERAPY, INC., d/b/a HOPE PROGRAM, a California corporation; and DOES 1-10, inclusive, Defendants.	Case No.: STK-CV-UF-2026-0001032 [PROPOSED] STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER RE: CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION Complaint Filed: February 10, 2026 Trial Date: TBD

WHEREAS the parties in this case ("Litigation") have entered into a Stipulation agreeing to the terms of this Protective Order re: Confidential Information ("Protective Order"), and good cause appearing therefore, the court HEREBY ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

I. SCOPE OF PROTECTIVE ORDER

A. The protection of this Protective Order may be used with respect to any documents, testimony, information, and things (collectively "materials") produced or created in this Litigation that contain Confidential Information. As used herein, the term "Confidential Information" includes testimony and records, including but not limited to discovery responses, whether hardcopy or electronic, that contain confidential and/or proprietary trade secret information, including, but not limited to, counseling matters, information pertaining to sexual matters, information pertaining to psychological or medical matters, information pertaining to education, training, and selection of employees and staff, information pertaining to individual personnel files of employees and staff policies, training protocols, and clinical practice guidelines, information pertaining to non-parties subject to protection under the California Constitution or the United States Constitution, and such other information protected by California's constitution and common law right to privacy. As set forth below, materials containing Confidential Information may be designated as "Confidential." Such designation may be made by any Party or non-party producing materials in the Litigation ("Producing Party"), or may be made by a Party who determines, in good faith, that materials produced by a non-party contain Confidential Information ("Designating Party") even though not so designated by the Producing Party.

B. In the event that additional Parties join or are joined in this litigation, they shall not have access to materials designated as "Confidential" pursuant to this Protective Order until they have executed and, at the request of any Party, filed with the Court their agreement to be bound by this Protective Order, which has been attached as Exhibit "1" hereto.

II. DESIGNATION OR MATERIALS AS CONFIDENTIAL

A. "Confidential" materials shall include only such information as the Producing or Designating Party in good faith contends should be protected pursuant to this Protective Order on the grounds that the information is properly subject to protection under existing California or federal law.

B. In making the designation of materials pursuant to this Protective Order, the Producing or Designating Party shall give due consideration to whether the information contained in the materials (1) has been produced, disclosed or made available to the public in the past, (2) has been published, communicated or disseminated to others not obligated to maintain the confidentiality of the information contained therein, (3) has not been preserved or maintained in a manner calculated to preserve its confidentiality, or (4) is available from a third party or commercial source that is not obligated to maintain its confidentiality or privacy.

C. The protection of this Protective Order may be invoked with respect to materials in the following manner:

1. Documents when produced or otherwise designated shall bear the clear and legible designation "Confidential" on each page of the document. Documents produced prior to the entry of this Protective Order may be designated as "Confidential" within thirty (30) days after entry, and documents produced by non-parties may be designated "Confidential" by a Party within thirty (30) days after such production;

2. As to discovery requests or the responses thereto, the pages of such requests or responses containing "Confidential" materials shall be so marked;

3. As to deposition testimony, "Confidential" treatment may be invoked by: (1) declaring the same on the record at the deposition with instructions to so designate the cover of the deposition transcript, or (2) designating specific pages as "Confidential" and serving such designations within thirty (30) days of receipt of the transcript of the deposition in which the designations are made. All deposition testimony shall be treated as "Confidential" pending receipt of a transcript of the deposition.

D. If any Producing Party inadvertently produces or discloses any Confidential Information without marking it with an appropriate legend, the Producing Party or a Designating Party shall promptly notify the receiving party that the information should be treated in accordance with the terms of this Protective Order and shall forward appropriately stamped copies of the items in question. Within five (5) days of the receipt of substitute copies, the receiving party shall return the previously unmarked items and all copies thereof. The inadvertent disclosure shall not be deemed a waiver or confidentiality, and such designation shall be made as soon as possible after the discovery of the inadvertent production or disclosure.

III. CHALLENGES TO "CONFIDENTIAL" DESIGNATION

A. Any Party believing materials designated as "Confidential" by another is not entitled to such designation shall notify the Producing or Designating Party of that belief in writing, provide a brief statement of the basis for that belief with service on all other Parties, and allowing ten (10) days for the Producing or Designating Party to respond.

B. If a Producing or Designating Party does not modify its designation of' the materials in response to a notice pursuant to paragraph III.A. of this Protective Order, then the Party challenging the "Confidential" designation may move the court for an order modifying or removing such designation. To maintain "Confidential" status, the burden shall be on the proponent of confidentiality to show that the material or information is entitled to protection under applicable law. Unless and until a "Confidential" designation is voluntarily withdrawn by the Producing or Designating party, or the court issues an order modifying or removing such designation, the provisions of the Protective Order shall continue to apply. Such a motion to remove the "Confidential" designation shall be madeat any time before trial, provided that the challenging Party has first engaged in a good-faith meet-and-confer with the Designating Party regarding the disputed designation(s).

IV. DISCLOSURE OF MATERIALS DESIGNATED AS "CONFIDENTIAL"

A. Materials designated "Confidential," as well as summaries, excerpts and extracts thereof, shall not be disclosed to or made accessible to any person except as specifically permitted by this Protective Order. Materials designated "Confidential" shall be used solely in the preparation for trial and/or trial of the Litigation and shall not be used at any time for any other purpose. Notwithstanding the foregoing, materials designated as "Confidential" may also be used in the action Newanforbi v. Derrick et al., United States District Court, Eastern District of California, Case No. 2:26-cv-00004 DJC JDP PS, subject to compliance with the Protective Order in that action.

B. Materials designated as "Confidential" may be disclosed only to:

1. The court, its clerks and research attorneys;

2. Attorneys actively involved in the representation of a Party, their secretaries, paralegals, legal assistants, and other staff actively involved in assisting in the Litigation;

3. In-house attorneys employed by any Party and working on the Litigation, and their secretaries, paralegals, legal assistants, and other staff actively involved in assisting in the Litigation;

4. The Parties, officers and employees of the Parties assisting counsel in the preparation of the case for trial, motion practice or appellate proceedings, provided that the materials designated "Confidential" may be disclosed to such persons only to the extent such disclosure is, in the judgment of counsel, reasonably necessary to counsel's preparation of the case;

5. The insurance carriers for defendants and their counsel, who provide coverage or potential coverage for claims in this Litigation;

6. Any expert or consultant who is retained by any of the Parties or their counsel of record to assist counsel in the Litigation, and any employee of such an expert assisting in the Litigation (hereafter, "Experts");

7. Any person called to testify as a witness either at a deposition or court proceeding in the Litigation, but only to the extent necessary for the purpose of assisting in the preparation or examination of the witness, and also only if such persons are informed of the terms of this Protective Order, provided with a copy of the Protective Order on the record and are informed that they are required not to disclose information contained in the materials designated as "Confidential." Witnesses shown Confidential Information are not allowed to retain copies;

8. Deposition and court reporters and their support personnel, for purposes of preparing transcripts;

9. Employees of outside copying services and other vendors retained by counsel to assist in the copying, imaging, handling or computerization of documents, but only to the extent necessary to provide such services in connection with the Litigation and only after being informed of the provisions of this Protective Order and agreeing to abide by its terms;

10. Mediators or other Alternative Dispute Resolution neutrals (including their employees, agents and contractors) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary to their involvement in the Litigation; and

11. Any person who created a document or was the recipient thereof.

C. Confidential Information may not be disclosed to, or discussed with, any person or entity not specifically outlined in 1-11. above, including, but not limited to the media or on social media, including with newspapers, television, radio stations or any person in any way associated with such media outlets.

D. Each person to whom Confidential Information is disclosed (other than persons described in paragraphs IV(B)(1), (7), and (8)) shall execute a non-disclosure agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit "2" prior to their receipt of the Confidential Information, and shall agree to be bound by this Protective Order and to be subject to the jurisdiction of this court for the purposes of enforcement. Counsel disclosing Confidential Information to persons required to execute non-disclosure agreements shall retain all such executed agreements. Copies of the executed agreements shall be preserved by counsel and shall be provided to the opposing party if the court so orders upon a showing of good cause.

V. USE IN COURT PROCEEDINGS – FILING OF COURT PAPERS

A. Nothing contained in this Protective Order shall be construed to prejudice any Party's right to use at trial or in any hearing before the court any Confidential Information, provided that reasonable notice of the intended use of such material shall be given to all counsel of record, in order to enable the parties to arrange for appropriate safeguards, and provided that the rules applicable to sealing records, as further addressed below, are followed. Likewise, nothing in this Protective Order shall be dispositive of any issues of relevance, discoverability or admissibility.

B. The submission of any materials designated as "Confidential" pursuant to this Protective Order to the court in the Litigation must comply with California Rules of Court ("C.R.C.") 2.550, 2.551 and 8.46 to the extent applicable. If the materials are required to be kept confidential by law or are submitted in connection with discovery motions or proceedings, no court order is required. (C.R.C. 2.550(a)(2) and (3).) If materials designated as "Confidential" are sought to be filed in support of a discovery motion, filing, or pleading with the Court that is not subject to C.R.C. 2.551 (as provided by C.R.C. 2.550(a)(2), (3)), those materials shall be lodged with the Court and served on all appropriate parties who have agreed to the terms of this Protective Order in a sealed envelope with a caption page on the exterior of the envelope providing notice of lodgment of Confidential Information in support of that pleading, and providing: "CONFIDENTIAL MATERIALS LODGED IN SUPPORT OF MOTION UNDER C.R.C. 2.550(a)(3) – NO FURTHER ORDER REQUIRED." The reverse side of the envelope containing the Confidential Information shall have the instant Protective Order attached thereto.

However, if the materials are submitted for use at trial or as the basis for adjudication or matters other than discovery motions or proceedings, a court order sealing the materials is required and may only be obtained by careful compliance with the procedures set forth in C.R.C. 2.551. If either Party seeks to file Confidential Information or disclose the contents of Confidential Information designated as such by the opposing Party as a basis for adjudication other than discovery motions or proceedings (e.g., motions within the scope of C.R.C. 3.1350 and 3.764), the filing Party must meet and confer with the designating Party at least 10 (ten) calendar days prior to the intended filing date to offer designating Party the opportunity to evaluate whether the designated materials fall within the parameters of C.R.C. 2.550(d), and to either (a) remove the Confidential designation, or (b) prepare a motion or application pursuant to C.R. C. 2.551 (b). The Parties understand that failure to comply with the procedural requirements of C.R.C. 2.551 or failure to present evidence sufficient to support the findings set forth in C.R.C. 2.550(d) may result in the placement of confidential materials in the public file. The Parties further understand that no sealing order will be issued solely on the basis of the existence and applicability of this Protective Order. (C. R.C. 2.551(a).)

VI. USE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

All Confidential Information (other than Information that is publicly available) must be used by the party or parties to whom the Confidential Information is produced solely for the purpose of this Litigation and may not be used for any other purpose whatsoever, other than use in the related action Newanforbi v. Derrick et al., United States District Court, Eastern District of California, Case No. 2:26-cv-00004 DJC JDP PS.

VII. MODIFICATION

Nothing in this Protective Order shall preclude any Party from applying to the Court to modify this Protective Order to provide for additional safeguards to ensure the confidentiality of materials produced in this action or otherwise modify this Protective Order for good cause shown.

VIII. DISPOSITION OF MATERIALS AT CONCLUSION OF CASE

The conclusion of an action is defined as thirty (30) days after the expiration of the time to appeal or challenge any final judgment, settlement, or consent decree. All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of Confidential Information continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, unless otherwise agreed or ordered. All materials designated as "Confidential" shall remain in the possession of the counsel of record of the Party to whom such materials are produced, and they shall not permit any such materials to leave their possession, except that copies of such materials may be made for the use of persons to whom disclosure may be made under paragraph IV.B. of this Protective Order, or for the purpose of submission to the court under paragraph V of this Protective Order. Within sixty (60) days after the conclusion of this Litigation or the action Newanforbi v. Derrick et al., United States District Court, Eastern District of California, Case No. 2:26-cv-00004 DJC JDP PS, whichever is later, including the expiration or exhaustion of all rights to appeal, each Party to whom Confidential Information was produced shall, at the election of the Producing Party, (a) return all documents and copies containing Confidential Information (including, but not limited to, copies in the possession or control of any expert or employee) to the Producing Party, or (b) promptly destroy all such materials and copies and provide a written certification under oath to the Producing Party and to any Designating Party to that effect.

IX. RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

The court shall retain jurisdiction over all persons to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order, during the pendency of this Litigation and for such time thereafter as is needed to carry out its terms.

X. REGULATORY REPORTING AND GOOD-FAITH COMPLAINTS

Nothing in this Order shall prohibit any Party from disclosing Confidential Information to any governmental agency, regulatory body, or professional licensing board with jurisdiction over the conduct, practices, or licensing of any party or non-party in this action within 90 days of the termination of this action, to the extent such disclosure is (a) required by law or regulation, or (b) made in furtherance of a good-faith complaint, report, or request for investigation. Such disclosures shall be accompanied by a request that the receiving agency maintain the confidentiality of the materials to the extent permitted by law.

The Stipulation and Protective Order may be executed in counterparts.

IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.
