UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT — NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA, OAKLAND DIVISION

BRENDAN NGEHSI NEWANFORBI, Plaintiff, v. AMAZON.COM SERVICES, LLC and ACCURATE BACKGROUND, LLC, Defendants.

Case No. 4:26-cv-09249-ASK — Hon. Ajay S. Krishnan

Plaintiff's First Requests for Admission to Amazon.com Services, LLC

DRAFT — NOT FILED OR SERVED

Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 36, admit or deny each statement specifically, or explain in detail why you cannot truthfully do so after reasonable inquiry. Respond within the applicable Rule 36 period.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 01. Admit that Amazon extended Plaintiff a conditional offer for a Seasonal XL Warehouse Associate position at its Fremont, California location during July 2026.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 02. Admit that Amazon requested a background screening of Plaintiff from Accurate for that position.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 03. Admit that Amazon maintained electronic records of Plaintiff’s background-screening status during July 2026.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 04. Admit that the applicant-facing Simple Hire system displayed no selected shift when Plaintiff viewed his checklist on July 27, 2026.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 05. Admit that Amazon previously scheduled Plaintiff for training beginning July 28, 2026.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 06. Admit that Amazon maintains system records capable of identifying changes to Plaintiff’s July 2026 training assignment.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 07. Admit that Amazon did not deliver to Plaintiff, on or before July 27, 2026, a written pre-adverse-action notice attaching a copy of an Accurate consumer report concerning the July 2026 application.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 08. Admit that Amazon’s July 2026 offer terms contemplated selection of a new start date or schedule if pre-employment requirements were not completed in time.

Dated: _____ Signature: _____

Brendan Ngwa Nforbi, Plaintiff in Propria Persona

1455 Cat Tail Drive, Stockton, CA 95204 · (209) 801-4442 · bnn.cdl@gmail.com