Probate Notes:

In San Joaquin County, the probate examiners review the pleadings and court documents in each case filed in probate. The examiners then create a list of procedural and/or legal issues that need correction and/or further explanation, this list is referred to as a "Probate Note." The Probate Note also delineates anything that remains to be filed, or which appears to be omitted from the documents. The Probate Note is posted on the Court's website approximately 10-15 days prior to the court hearing in each case.

To clear the Probate Notes, at least 1 week before the hearing, the Petitioner must file the necessary documents and/or a declaration responding to the Probate Notes. Documents can be eFiled, left in the drop box in front of the courthouse from 8 am to 4 pm, or mailed. If Probate Notes have not been addressed before the hearing, the matter will be continued to the next available date to give the parties time to address the Probate Note.

More information regarding clearing probate notes is available in a handout titled Checking and Clearing Probate Notes Handout, available on our website.
