Dear Mr. Azimov:

I write to meet and confer as ordered at the August 12, 2026 Case Management Conference in Brendan Ngwa Nforbi v. Diamond Truck Sales, Inc., et al., San Joaquin Superior Court Case No. STK-CV-UF-2026-0001094 (Hon. Robert T. Waters, Dept. 11B). The Court directed the parties to meet and confer regarding service and ordered the case at issue by the next hearing (further CMC: December 11, 2026, 8:30 a.m.).

1. Service

You stated at the CMC that Defendants were not properly served and that the Proof of Service on file is invalid. I am prepared to cure service promptly.

California Secretary of State records reflect:

- Diamond Truck Sales, Inc. (Entity No. 3438768) — agent for service of process: Saliman Osmani, 1201 S. Soderquist Road, Turlock, CA 95380 (Stanislaus County).
- Alpine Truck Sales, Inc. (Entity No. B20250280641) — agent for service of process: Sheran Osmani, 7156 Golden State Highway, Bakersfield, CA 93308 (Kern County).

Please advise, by Friday, September 4, 2026, whether Defendants will:

(A) execute a Notice of Acknowledgment of Receipt (or equivalent stipulation) accepting service of the Amended Summons and First Amended Complaint, with a response date running from an agreed effective date; or

(B) require formal re-service, in which case I will arrange personal service on the SOS agents at the addresses above.

I am available for a short call this week to finalize either path so the case can be at issue well before December 11.

2. Settlement Proposal ($68,000)

Separately, I want to follow up on resolving this matter without further litigation. My clients' claims arise from the sale of the 2014 Volvo VNL and the resulting out-of-pocket and lost-income damages already itemized in the default prove-up materials.

Please let me know whether your clients are prepared to discuss settlement, and if so, propose dates/times for a call this week or early next week. This communication is for settlement purposes only and is protected under Evidence Code § 1152.

I look forward to your prompt response.

Respectfully,

Brendan Ngwa Nforbi

Dear Brendan,

I just returned from international travel, which occurred on very short notice. Could you please extend the response deadline by an additional 10 days?

Best regards,

Jon
