SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

COUNTY OF ALAMEDA — RENE C. DAVIDSON COURTHOUSE

BRENDAN NGEHSI NEWANFORBI, Plaintiff, v. RANDSTAD US, LLC; THE RK LOGISTICS GROUP, INC.; and DOES 1–20, inclusive, Defendants.	Case No. 26CV199902 STIPULATION TO EXTEND TIME FOR RANDSTAD US, LLC TO RESPOND TO THE COMPLAINT [Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.110(d); Code Civ. Proc., § 1054] Judge: Hon. Thomas Weathers Dept. 20 [Proposed] Order lodged concurrently

STIPULATION TO EXTEND TIME

(Randstad US, LLC Only)

Plaintiff Brendan Ngehsi Newanforbi, appearing in propria persona, and Defendant Randstad US, LLC, through its counsel of record, stipulate as follows:

1. Defendant Randstad US, LLC was served with the Summons and Complaint on July 30, 2026. By written party agreement dated August 18, 2026, Plaintiff and Randstad stipulated without leave of court to one 15-day extension of Randstad's time to respond, through and including September 15, 2026. That was the single 15-day extension California Rules of Court, rule 3.110(d), allows without leave of court. Randstad's time to answer, demur, or otherwise respond is therefore September 15, 2026, unless this Court orders a further extension.

2. The parties agree to extend that deadline, as to Randstad US, LLC only, through and including September 18, 2026.

3. This extension does not apply to Defendant The RK Logistics Group, Inc. or to any other party. The RK Logistics Group, Inc.'s deadline is unchanged by this stipulation.

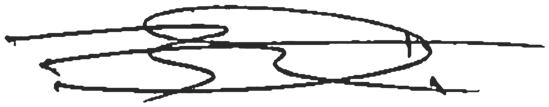

4. This is a single extension. It does not alter any date set by Court order, including the December 17, 2026 case management conference. No further extension is implied. Any additional extension would need to be agreed separately, in writing, and presented to the Court. It does not waive any defense, objection, or right of any party, including Plaintiff's right to seek default if no timely response is filed. This stipulation continues the response deadline only. It is not a stay of discovery, not a settlement, not a release, and not an acceptance of any settlement demand.

5. As consideration for this single extension, Randstad shall promptly file this stipulation and the proposed order lodged with it, and shall not seek any further extension of its time to respond except by order of the Court.

6. This stipulation is made under California Rules of Court, rule 3.110(d), and Code of Civil Procedure section 1054. Because the August 18, 2026 extension already used the one 15-day enlargement rule 3.110(d) allows without leave, a proposed order is lodged. The proposed order is no broader than these terms. Court approval is required. This stipulation is not an operative deadline until it is signed, filed, and the Court enters an order.

IT IS SO STIPULATED.
