WE GOT U LLC, Plaintiff, v. GARRY LEONARD, DIANA LEONARD, LEONARD CONSULTING, LLC, and FSELL MARKETING, LLC, Defendants.	)	Civil Action No.: _____ JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

Plaintiff We Got U LLC ("WGU" or the "Company") files this Complaint for Damages and Injunctive Relief against Defendants Garry Leonard ("Garry"), Diana Leonard ("Diana"), Leonard Consulting, LLC ("Leonard Consulting"), and FSELL Marketing, LLC ("FSELL") (collectively, "Defendants"), and alleges as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This action concerns a coordinated scheme orchestrated by high ranking former insiders of WGU – Garry and his wife, Diana – to misappropriate WGU's trade secrets and confidential business information and divert WGU's clients and prospects to a competing operation.

2. To be clear, Garry did not leave WGU and then decide to compete.

While still bound by his confidentiality obligations and entrusted with WGU's most sensitive client information as WGU's Senior Marketing Manager, Garry organized FSELL and used it as the corporate vehicle through which he prepared to take WGU's clients, prospects, and work product. In the days and weeks before Garry's resignation, Garry, Diana, their adult daughter Faith Leonard (a WGU Market Manager whom Garry supervised), and Faith's domestic partner Ryan Rodriguez (another WGU personnel) downloaded WGU's most sensitive client and prospect materials, including trade-secret client compilations, advertising budgets, CRM data, creative assets, and at least one client's digital login credentials. Garry separately received an edit-access invitation from a direct competitor to a competing pitch deck for a WGU prospect on which Garry was simultaneously working for WGU. Throughout, Garry and Diana – along with their co-conspirators, Faith and Ryan – continued to receive WGU's trust, payments, and access.

3. WGU brings this action to recover damages of at least $1 million; to obtain disgorgement of Defendants' unjust enrichment, exemplary damages, punitive damages, and attorneys' fees and costs; and to secure temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief to enjoin and prevent further misuse and unauthorized disclosure of WGU's trade secrets and confidential business information.

II. THE PARTIES

4. Plaintiff We Got U LLC is a Delaware limited liability company. WGU's sole member is Robin Burnette, who is a citizen of Florida. WGU is a remote-first digital marketing agency with no brick-and-mortar office. Robin Burnette directs, controls, and coordinates WGU's activities from Miami-Dade County, Florida, where WGU also maintains its books and corporate records.

5. Defendant Garry Leonard is a natural person residing in Fulton County, Georgia. Garry served as WGU's Senior Marketing Manager pursuant to a Memorandum of Understanding dated May 20, 2025 (the "MOU") until his purported verbal resignation on or about April 7, 2026. Garry was an independent contractor, but he acted as WGU's agent for purposes of managing WGU client accounts, supervising and assisting WGU Market Managers, communicating with WGU clients and prospects, protecting WGU confidential information, and enforcing WGU account-transition rights. A true and correct copy of the MOU is attached as Exhibit A.

6. Defendant Diana Leonard is a natural person residing in Fulton County, Georgia. Diana is Garry's spouse. Diana served as WGU's Director of Client Services pursuant to a written agreement she executed on March 10, 2025 ("Diana's Agreement"). A true and correct copy of Diana's Agreement is attached as Exhibit B.

7. Defendant Leonard Consulting, LLC is a Georgia limited liability company organized on or about March 31, 2021, with its principal office in Fulton County, Georgia at the same address as the Leonards' residence. Public records on file with the Georgia Secretary of State identify Diana Leonard as a Member of Leonard Consulting. Upon information and belief, Leonard Consulting's sole member or members are Garry Leonard and/or Diana Leonard, both Georgia citizens.

8. Defendant FSELL Marketing, LLC is a Georgia limited liability company organized on February 18, 2026, with its principal office in Fulton County, Georgia – also at the same address as the Leonards' residence. Garry is the sole organizer and authorizer identified on FSELL's Articles of Organization. Upon information and belief, FSELL's sole member or members are Garry Leonard and/or Diana Leonard, both Georgia citizens.

9. Faith Leonard, the adult daughter of Garry and Diana, worked for WGU as a Market Manager whom Garry supervised or assisted on multiple accounts. Faith was terminated by WGU on May 6, 2026. Ryan Rodriguez, Faith's domestic partner, also worked for WGU and was terminated on May 6, 2026. Mr. Rodriguez and Ms. Leonard are not named defendants at this time; however, WGU reserves the right to amend to add them as defendants if discovery establishes additional bases for liability.

III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over WGU's claim arising under the Defend Trade Secrets Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1836 et seq., pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

11. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction over WGU's claims arising under Georgia and Delaware law pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a), because those claims arise from the same case or controversy as WGU's federal trade-secret claim.

12. This Court also has diversity jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a). WGU is a Delaware limited liability company whose sole member, Robin Burnette, is a citizen of Florida. Garry and Diana are citizens of Georgia. Upon information and belief, Leonard Consulting and FSELL are Georgia limited liability companies whose sole member or members are Garry Leonard and/or Diana Leonard, both Georgia citizens. Complete diversity therefore exists, and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

13. This Court has personal jurisdiction over each Defendant because each Defendant resides in, has its principal place of business in, or committed substantial acts giving rise to WGU's claims in this District. Garry and Diana reside in Fulton County, Georgia. Leonard Consulting and FSELL maintain their principal offices in Fulton County, Georgia.

14. Venue is proper in this District and Division pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §

1391(b)(1) and (b)(2). Defendants reside in or have their principal places of business in Fulton County, Georgia. And, a substantial part of the events giving rise to WGU's claims occurred within this District, including Defendants' access to and downloading of WGU materials (from the Leonards' residence and business address), and the use of the Leonard-controlled entities through which the conduct alleged herein was conducted.

IV. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. WGU and Its Business

15. WGU is a remote-first digital marketing agency that provides digital marketing, advertising, account management, creative, CRM, and related services to automotive dealerships, powersports dealerships, marine dealerships, and other commercial clients across the United States.

16. Because WGU operates remotely, it depends on controlled digital workspaces, role-based access, client-specific repositories, CRM materials, advertising calendars, budgets, creative assets, account strategy documents, and other non-public business information to perform its services.

17. WGU's competitive advantage rests on the confidential business information, proprietary work product, and trade secrets it has developed through client relationships, account performance, campaign history, advertising spend, creative testing, client-specific CRM work, and years of industry experience.

B. Garry's Engagement Under the MOU

18. On May 20, 2025, WGU and Garry entered into the MOU, pursuant to which Garry served as WGU's Senior Marketing Manager. The MOU is a valid and enforceable contract.

19. The MOU governed Garry's profit-sharing compensation tied to sales he closed or brought in from WGU client accounts and sales generated by Market Managers under his supervision or strategic oversight.

20. The MOU expressly states that it defines a profit-sharing arrangement for work performed on WGU client accounts and does not confer any ownership interest in WGU.

21. The MOU contains a confidentiality provision under which each party agreed to maintain the confidentiality of confidential, proprietary, or commercially sensitive information acquired during the engagement; to use such information solely for purposes contemplated in the MOU; and not to disclose such information to third parties without express written consent unless required by law. The confidentiality obligation survives termination.

22. The MOU provides that its term begins on the effective date and remains in effect until terminated by either party with thirty days' written notice.

23. The MOU is governed by Delaware law.

C. Diana's Engagement as Director of Client Services

24. On March 10, 2025, Diana executed Diana's Agreement, under which she undertook several roles, including Director of Client Services at WGU.

25. As WGU's Director of Client Services, Diana's responsibilities included onboarding and training Market Managers; supporting client onboarding; training Market Managers on task delegation, communication, and fulfillment team collaboration; acting as a primary resource for Market Managers; partnering with WGU leadership on client satisfaction, retention, and service delivery; standardizing client service processes; and monitoring client onboarding and fulfillment metrics.

26. Diana's Agreement contains an express "Special Consideration" provision stating that Diana "[w]ill not be allowed to open/do any tasks for any other Leonard that is employed by We Got U."

27. By accepting the Director of Client Services role and the Special Consideration restriction, Diana acknowledged that her access to WGU client materials and Market Manager workstreams was role based, limited, and not a license to open or perform work for Garry, Faith, or any other Leonard employed by or otherwise providing services to WGU.

D. The Leonards' Controlled LLCs

28. The Leonards used two Georgia limited liability companies – Leonard Consulting and FSELL – as payment conduits through which they received WGU payments during the relevant period. Leonard Consulting was the prior conduit. FSELL became the new Leonard – controlled vehicle at the critical moment, after Garry formed it while still acting for WGU and shortly before the New Road contact, the late March download window, the March 30, 2026 meeting (described further below), and Garry's resignation.

29. Leonard Consulting, organized in 2021, lists a Diana Leonard email address on its invoices to WGU. Leonard Consulting issued more than forty invoices to WGU between approximately December 2024 and February 2026, including recurring "Miscellaneous – Diana L" entries for Diana's monthly compensation, additional Leonard family compensation, and profit-share calculations on Garry's WGU client accounts. Leonard Consulting's significance is that it shows the existing Leonard-controlled payment structure that FSELL then replaced at the moment Garry began preparing his competing operation.

30. FSELL was organized on February 18, 2026. FSELL's first invoice to WGU was issued on February 27, 2026 – nine days after FSELL's formation – and billed WGU $5,416.67 for "Miscellaneous – Diana L" for the February 28, 2026 pay period. FSELL thereby succeeded Leonard Consulting as the Leonards' payment conduit shortly before Garry's resignation and during the same period in which the account-access and New Road facts alleged below occurred.

31. FSELL's early invoices are significant not because the invoices themselves were secret from WGU – they were submitted to WGU for payment – but because they show that FSELL became active in the WGU payment stream within two weeks of its formation and was tied from inception to Garry's WGU client-account economics. FSELL Invoice 1003, issued March 2, 2026, itemized client names, monthly revenue figures, percentage splits, expenses, and account-level compensation calculations for WGU accounts Garry was managing. FSELL was therefore not a dormant entity formed after Garry left; it was formed and activated while Garry remained inside WGU, before the New Road communication, before the late-March download window, before the March 30 meeting, and before Brady CDJR and Reading Mitsubishi cancelled through Garry.

32. Both Leonard Consulting and FSELL maintain their principal offices at the Leonards' personal residence in Fulton County, Georgia. Both share the same registered agent in Fulton County, Georgia.

E. WGU's Trade Secrets and Confidential Business Information

33. WGU does not allege that every item of confidential information described in this Complaint is a trade secret. WGU's trade-secret allegations are directed to a narrower subset of its protected information: non-public compilations of client and prospect data that combine decision-maker contacts, communications history, client needs, advertising budgets, spend allocations, account strategy, performance metrics, CRM snapshots, CRM workflows, and platform-access information.

34. That information is valuable because a competitor who receives it does not need to develop the account from scratch. It can see whom to call, what the client is spending, what WGU proposed, what WGU's strategy was, what objections or performance issues existed, and, in some instances, how to access or transition the client's digital advertising properties.

35. WGU takes reasonable measures to protect the secrecy of its trade secrets and confidential business information, including by limiting access to authorized personnel based on role and need, maintaining digital access controls, using company-controlled Google Workspace accounts, controlling permissions to client folders and files, and requiring confidentiality or role-based restrictions in personnel agreements, including Garry's MOU and Diana's Agreement.

36. WGU separately maintains confidential business information that is protected by contract, agency duty, and duty of loyalty even where WGU does not plead it as a trade secret. That category includes pitch materials, creative assets, production formats, case studies, proposal materials, business plan presentations, and WGU's Capabilities Deck.

37. WGU pleads its Capabilities Deck and similar pitch materials as confidential business information, not as stand-alone trade secrets. Defendants' misuse of that information supports WGU's contract, fiduciary-duty, interference, conspiracy, unjust-enrichment, and injunctive-relief theories, but WGU does not rely on the Capabilities Deck itself as a trade secret.

F. Formation of FSELL and Setup of the Competing Operation

38. On February 18, 2026, while Garry remained bound by the MOU and while he was still acting as WGU's Senior Marketing Manager and agent for client-account purposes, Garry organized FSELL under Georgia law.

39. On information and belief, Garry formed FSELL to serve as the corporate vehicle through which he intended to compete with WGU and exploit WGU client and prospect information. WGU was not aware of, and Garry did not disclose, that intended use of FSELL.

40. Beginning on February 27, 2026, FSELL began issuing invoices to WGU. Those invoices initially mirrored the prior Leonard Consulting billing pattern for Diana's compensation and the Leonards' profit-share, creating the appearance that FSELL was merely a successor billing entity rather than the competing-business vehicle Garry was simultaneously preparing.

G. The Access, Download, and Sync Window

41. Between approximately late February and early April 2026, Garry, Diana, and other WGU personnel under Garry's direct or de facto supervision engaged in unusual activity involving WGU's client and prospect materials.

42. WGU's Google Workspace logs reflect several categories of relevant activity, including explicit "Download" events, "Item content synced" events, and other access or activity events. WGU's allegations do not depend solely on sync events; the logs independently reflect explicit downloads and other corroborating facts, including FSELL's formation and invoices, the New Road sharing invitation, the March 30 meeting, the client cancellations through Garry, and Garry's resignation without written notice.

43. Garry's WGU Google Workspace account generated approximately 3,942 distinct activity events between October 16, 2025 and April 8, 2026, including 33 explicit "Download" events and numerous "Item content synced" events.

44. Garry's explicit download events included, among other files, the 2025 We Got U Capabilities Deck; Brady CDJR advertising and CRM materials; Reading Mitsubishi CRM materials; Sunrise Searcy and Sunrise Rogers CRM snapshots; Evinmotors CRM materials; Hot Deals Auto CRM and business-plan materials; Coastal Carts advertising and SEO performance materials; Best Auto AZ CRM materials; and multiple advertising budgets for Sunrise Honda of Rogers, Sunrise Honda of Searcy, Sunrise Marine and Motorsports, and Sunrise Yamaha of Searcy.

45. Diana's WGU Google Workspace account generated approximately 627 distinct activity events between October 29, 2025 and April 8, 2026, including 36 explicit download events. Diana's downloads included, among other files, Brady CDJR advertising and CRM materials, the Hazleton Nissan 2026 Advertising

Budget, Reading Mitsubishi login credentials, Reading Mitsubishi creative assets, Brady CDJR creative assets, Kent Powersports of Austin business-plan materials, Hawkeye Motorworks business-plan materials, Sunrise Honda business-plan materials, and Mitsubishi Motors brand creative assets.

46. Diana's activity was disproportionately concentrated in March 2026. Her peak download window was March 25 through March 27, 2026, which coincided with the peak of Garry's activity and immediately followed the New Road Advertising sharing invitation described below.

47. Diana's March 25 downloads are especially probative because they occurred one day after the New Road pitch invitation to Garry and involved the same Hazleton Nissan prospect. Diana also downloaded Reading Mitsubishi login credentials and Reading creative assets during the same late-March window. Those files were not generic company materials; they were account-specific tools that would allow a successor agency or competing operation to understand WGU's work, replicate creative formats, and access or transition client-facing digital properties.

48. Diana's Special Consideration provision prohibited her from opening or performing tasks for any other Leonard employed by WGU. Her access to Hazleton Nissan, Brady CDJR, Reading Mitsubishi, and other materials associated with Garry-supervised accounts therefore exceeded the scope of the access WGU granted her for legitimate WGU purposes.

H. The Boccio / New Road Advertising Email

49. On March 24, 2026, Ric Boccio of New Road Advertising, a direct competitor of WGU, sent Garry at his WGU email address a Google Slides invitation granting edit access to a presentation titled "2026.03.23 Wallys Nissan of Hazelton.pptx." A true and correct screenshot of the Boccio email as preserved from Garry's WGU email account is attached as Exhibit C.

50. Wally's Nissan of Hazleton, referred to internally by WGU as Hazleton Nissan, was a WGU prospect during the relevant period. WGU had submitted a proposal to Wally's Nissan of Hazleton on or about February 25, 2026. Garry had follow-up calls with the dealership on or about March 14, 2026, after which the WGU team was tasked with preparing a business plan presentation to pitch the client.

51. WGU presently cannot determine from the materials available whether Garry opened, edited, accepted, or responded to the Boccio sharing invitation. WGU therefore pleads only that Boccio sent Garry the invitation and that the invitation granted Garry edit access to a competing pitch presentation for a WGU prospect on which Garry was working for WGU.

52. There was no legitimate WGU business reason for the principal of a competing agency to give a then-current WGU Senior Marketing Manager edit access to a competing pitch presentation for the same dealership prospect WGU was actively pursuing.

53. The Boccio email was routed to the Junk/Spam folder of Garry's WGU email account and was discovered during WGU's post-resignation review. WGU has not located ordinary WGU-channel communications explaining the Boccio/New Road sharing invitation. WGU does not presently plead that any such communications were deleted, but the absence of transparent WGU-channel communications supports a reasonable inference that the New Road contact was not part of any legitimate WGU business process.

54. The date of the Boccio email, March 24, 2026, coincides with Garry's activity on WGU's Hazleton Nissan advertising budget. The next day, March 25, 2026, Diana downloaded WGU's Hazleton Nissan advertising budget. Wally's Nissan of Hazleton did not engage WGU.

I. The March 30, 2026 Meeting

55. On March 30, 2026, Garry participated in a video conference with WGU's President, Robin Burnette, and Angelica del Rosario. The meeting lasted approximately an hour.

56. By the date of the March 30 meeting, Garry had already organized FSELL; caused FSELL to begin invoicing WGU; received the Boccio / New Road Advertising sharing invitation six days earlier; engaged in the download and sync activity described above; and coordinated, or at minimum benefited from, Diana's late-March downloads of Hazleton Nissan, Reading Mitsubishi, Brady CDJR, and other WGU materials.

57. During the March 30 meeting, Robin expressly informed Garry that WGU's clients belonged to WGU, that Garry could not solicit WGU clients without consequence, and that WGU had counsel prepared to enforce WGU's rights if WGU clients were touched. Robin also discussed a proposed 50/50 partnership structure as a possible path for Garry to continue working with WGU.

58. Garry did not disclose FSELL's formation or intended competitive purpose. He did not disclose the New Road Advertising sharing invitation. He did not disclose the late-March activity involving WGU client and prospect materials. Instead, Garry accepted Robin's continuing trust and discussed his future as though he were merely considering options.

59. Garry's silence during the March 30 meeting was not passive. By that date, Garry had already placed himself on both sides of WGU's business: he was still WGU's Senior Marketing Manager, still receiving WGU profit-share payments through a Leonard-controlled entity, and still entrusted with WGU client accounts; at the same time, he had already organized FSELL, was already working with New Road Advertising on a pitch deck for a WGU prospect, and had already accessed and downloaded WGU client and prospect materials.

J. Brady CDJR and Reading Mitsubishi Cancel Through Garry

60. On or about April 1, 2026, Brady CDJR notified WGU that it was terminating WGU's services. The notice was communicated through Garry. Brady CDJR's contract required thirty days' cancellation notice. Garry did not enforce, protect, or preserve WGU's notice-period rights.

61. On or about April 2, 2026, Reading Mitsubishi notified WGU that it was terminating WGU's services. The notice was again communicated through Garry. Reading Mitsubishi's contract also required thirty days' cancellation notice. Garry again did not enforce, protect, or preserve WGU's notice-period rights.

62. WGU's Head of Digital, Vanessa Labramonte, had administrative access to Reading Mitsubishi's Meta Business Suite because WGU had established or administered the account during the client relationship. On or about April 2, 2026, she observed that Reading Mitsubishi had granted partner access on Meta to New Road Advertising, indicating that Reading Mitsubishi had moved, or was in the process of moving, its digital marketing work to New Road.

63. The annualized lost account value to WGU from Brady CDJR's departure is approximately $442,440, based on an average monthly account value of approximately $36,870. The annualized lost account value to WGU from Reading Mitsubishi's departure is approximately $184,200, based on an average monthly account value of approximately $15,350.

K. Garry's Resignation

64. On or about April 7, 2026, Garry verbally informed WGU that he was resigning to pursue his own business. Garry did not provide the thirty days' written notice required by the MOU.

65. Activity on Garry's WGU Google Workspace account continued through April 8, 2026, the day after his verbal resignation.

L. Continuing Account-Focused Conduct by Persons Acting in Concert

66. Faith Leonard was the WGU Market Manager assigned to several WGU accounts on which Garry served as supervisor or active participant, including RoofX and Evinmotors NC and Miami. WGU alleges Faith's and Ryan Rodriguez's conduct as surrounding factual context and as evidence of the continued account-focused access pattern after Garry's resignation.

67. Between April 8, 2026 and April 20, 2026, Faith, while still employed by WGU, downloaded approximately 97 additional files from WGU's Google Workspace, including multiple Evinmotors NC and Evinmotors Miami advertising calendars, internal strategy documents, offers, and organic social posts; Beaver County CDJR and Beaver County Nissan advertising calendars; RoofX files, including offers, lead-response sequences, website-demo feedback, and referral-program materials; Midwest Motors advertising materials; and Lonesome Dove Energy strategy and CRM pipeline materials.

68. Ryan Rodriguez was a WGU employee assigned to certain WGU client and prospect accounts. Between approximately January and April 2026, Ryan downloaded, among other WGU files, Dublin CRM materials, Dublin Outdoors departmental performance materials, Hawkeye Motorworks business-plan materials, and Sunrise Honda of Rogers offer materials.

69. After Ryan's termination on May 6, 2026, the owner of Dublin Outdoors reported to WGU that Ryan had attempted to contact him following Ryan's termination. Also on or about May 15, 2026, the General Manager of Sunrise Honda of Rogers and Sunrise Marine and Motorsports reported to WGU that he had not been informed of May 2026 budget reductions that Ryan had internally communicated to the WGU team while still employed.

70. WGU terminated Faith and Ryan on May 6, 2026. WGU does not name Faith or Ryan as defendants in this action – yet – but their conduct is relevant to the chronology, the scope of the coordinated download activity, Garry's supervisory role, and WGU's reservation of rights to amend if discovery establishes additional bases for liability against them or others.

M. The Evinmotors Departure

71. Evinmotors operates dealerships in North Carolina and Miami, Florida. Faith was the WGU Market Manager assigned to the Evinmotors accounts, with Garry acting as her supervisor or active participant.

72. On May 7, 2026, WGU personnel, including Jessica Shum and Robin Burnette, met with Evinmotors' point of contact, Monica Ines. During that meeting, Ms. Ines confirmed that Evinmotors was satisfied with WGU's services.

73. On May 8, 2026 – the day after that meeting – Ms. Ines emailed WGU to terminate Evinmotors' services. The overnight reversal, combined with Faith's post-Garry-resignation downloads of Evinmotors materials, supports a reasonable inference of intervening outside contact or influence, subject to discovery.

N. Matching Creative Formats Across Former WGU Clients

74. On or about June 3, 2026, WGU personnel observed that the popup advertisement format displayed on Evinmotors Miami's website was substantially similar to a new popup format being displayed by Reading Mitsubishi. The same popup format also appeared similar to the new popup format then displayed on Brady CDJR's website.

75. At least one of those former WGU clients – Reading Mitsubishi – is reported to have moved to New Road Advertising. The matching creative formats across former WGU clients support a reasonable inference that WGU-paid creative work, production formats, or transition information were used by a common downstream provider or competing operation.

O. The Cease-and-Desist Demand and Garry's Silence

76. On April 28, 2026, WGU's counsel issued a written cease-and-desist demand to Garry. The demand directed Garry to cease misappropriation, return WGU confidential information, and preserve evidence. A true and correct copy of the cease-and-desist letter is attached as Exhibit D.

77. To date, neither Garry nor counsel on his behalf has substantively responded to the cease-and-desist demand.

P. Damages

78. WGU has suffered substantial and continuing damages as a result of Defendants' conduct, including lost revenue from terminated or compromised client engagements, concessions and goodwill payments made to preserve or repair client relationships, projected lost business opportunities, loss of the competitive value of WGU's trade secrets and confidential business information, Defendants' unjust enrichment, and other damages to be proved at trial.

79. WGU's currently estimated damages are at least $1 million, consisting of confirmed annualized losses from terminated, cancelled, or compromised client engagements with Brady CDJR, Reading Mitsubishi, Roof X, Auto Direct Buy, Sunshine Carts, and Southeastern OPE; projected at-risk account value from Icon Golf Carts based on its 30-day cancellation notice of May 18, 2026; and projected lost opportunities with respect to prospects WGU was actively pursuing, including RFX Carts, Beaver County CDJR, and Wally's Nissan of Hazleton. WGU expects to prove additional damages, including Evinmotors-related losses, through discovery and at trial.

80. WGU specifically reserves the right to amend or supplement its complaint as discovery reveals the full extent of Defendants' conduct, the destination of diverted clients, the use of WGU materials, and the revenue Defendants or others obtained from WGU clients and prospects.

81. All conditions precedent to the filing of this action have occurred or were waived.

82. WGU has engaged the undersigned law firms to prosecute this action and is obligated to pay them a reasonable fee for their services.

COUNT I
Violation of the Defend Trade Secrets Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1836 et seq.
(All Defendants)

83. WGU realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 82 as if fully set forth herein.

84. WGU owns trade secrets within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 1839(3), including non-public compilations of client and prospect data that combine decision-maker contacts, communications history, client needs, advertising budgets, spend allocations, account strategy, performance metrics, CRM snapshots, CRM workflows, and platform-access information.

85. WGU's trade secrets derive independent economic value from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable through proper means by, competitors and other persons who could obtain economic value from their disclosure or use.

86. WGU took reasonable measures to maintain the secrecy of its trade secrets, including role-based access restrictions, company-controlled Google Workspace accounts, permission-limited client folders, and confidentiality and role-based restrictions in personnel agreements.

87. WGU's trade secrets are related to products and services used in, and intended for use in, interstate commerce, including WGU's interstate digital marketing services for automotive, powersports, marine, and other clients across multiple states.

88. Garry misappropriated WGU's trade secrets by acquiring, downloading, syncing, retaining, using, and/or disclosing WGU trade-secret information for purposes outside the MOU and adverse to WGU, including for the benefit of FSELL, New Road Advertising, and/or other competing operations.

89. Diana misappropriated WGU's trade secrets by acquiring, downloading, retaining, using, and/or disclosing WGU trade-secret information outside the scope of her Director of Client Services role and in violation of the Special Consideration restriction in Diana's Agreement, including by accessing materials associated with Garry-supervised accounts and WGU prospects.

90. FSELL is liable for misappropriation because Garry and/or Diana acquired, retained, disclosed, or used WGU trade secrets for FSELL's benefit or in furtherance of FSELL's competing business. FSELL was formed by Garry while he remained inside WGU, became active in the WGU payment stream within days, and is alleged to be the Leonard-controlled vehicle through which Garry prepared to compete using WGU client and prospect information.

91. Leonard Consulting is liable for misappropriation because Garry and/or Diana received, retained, used, or benefited from WGU trade-secret information for Leonard Consulting's benefit or in furtherance of Leonard Consulting's competing business. WGU pleads this allegation on information and belief pending discovery into Leonard Consulting's records, devices, and communications.

92. Defendants' misappropriation was willful and malicious, including because Garry formed FSELL while still acting for WGU, concealed the competitive vehicle and New Road communication during the March 30 meeting, failed to respond to WGU's cease-and-desist demand, and participated in a course of conduct designed to use WGU information for non-WGU purposes.

93. WGU has suffered actual loss and damages as a result of Defendants' misappropriation, and Defendants have been unjustly enriched in amounts to be proved at trial.

94. WGU is entitled to damages, unjust-enrichment recovery, reasonable royalty relief in the alternative, exemplary damages, attorneys' fees, costs, and injunctive relief under 18 U.S.C. § 1836(b)(3).

COUNT II
Violation of the Georgia Trade Secrets Act, O.C.G.A. § 10-1-760 et seq.
(All Defendants)

95. WGU realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 82 as if fully set forth herein.

96. WGU owns trade secrets within the meaning of O.C.G.A. § 10-1-761, including non-public client and prospect compilations, budgets, CRM information, account strategies, performance information, workflows, and platform-access information that derive economic value from not being generally known or readily ascertainable and that WGU protects through reasonable secrecy measures.

97. Defendants misappropriated WGU's trade secrets within the meaning of O.C.G.A. § 10-1-761 by acquiring, using, and/or disclosing WGU's trade secrets without WGU's consent and with knowledge or reason to know that the information was acquired through improper means or in breach of duties to maintain secrecy and limit use.

98. Defendants' misappropriation was willful and malicious, entitling WGU to exemplary damages and reasonable attorneys' fees under the Georgia Trade Secrets Act.

99. WGU is entitled to damages, unjust-enrichment recovery, exemplary damages, attorneys' fees, costs, and injunctive relief under O.C.G.A. § 10-1-760 et seq.

COUNT III
Breach of Contract – Memorandum of Understanding
(Against Garry Leonard)

100. WGU realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 82 as if fully set forth herein.

101. WGU and Garry entered into the MOU on May 20, 2025. The MOU is a valid and enforceable contract governed by Delaware law.

102. WGU performed all conditions and obligations required of it under the MOU.

103. Garry breached the MOU by failing to maintain the confidentiality of WGU's confidential, proprietary, and commercially sensitive information; using WGU information for purposes outside those contemplated by the MOU; retaining, downloading, syncing, or otherwise acquiring WGU information for non-WGU purposes; and failing to provide the thirty days' written notice of termination required by the MOU.

104. Garry also breached the MOU to the extent he disclosed or caused the disclosure of WGU confidential, proprietary, or commercially sensitive information to New Road Advertising, FSELL, Leonard Consulting, or any other third party without WGU's express written consent and not as required by law. WGU pleads this disclosure theory on information and belief pending discovery.

105. WGU has suffered damages as a result of Garry's breaches in amounts to be proved at trial.

COUNT IV
Breach of Fiduciary Duty / Agent's Duty of Loyalty
(Against Garry Leonard)

106. WGU realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 82 as if fully set forth herein.

107. Although Garry was an independent contractor, he acted as WGU's agent for purposes of managing WGU client accounts, supervising and assisting WGU Market Managers, communicating with WGU clients and prospects, protecting WGU confidential information, and protecting WGU account-transition rights.

108. WGU pleads this Count under Delaware law to the extent the MOU's Delaware choice-of-law provision governs duties arising from or relating to Garry's engagement under the MOU. In the alternative, and to the extent Garry's duties arise independently from common-law agency principles applicable to his conduct in Georgia, WGU pleads this Count under Georgia law.

109. As WGU's Senior Marketing Manager and agent, Garry owed WGU fiduciary duties and an agent's duty of loyalty with respect to matters within the scope of his role, including a duty not to act adversely to WGU in connection with WGU client accounts, prospects, confidential information, and account-transition rights.

110. Garry breached those duties by, among other things, forming FSELL as a competing vehicle while still acting for WGU; concealing FSELL's competitive purpose; receiving edit access from New Road Advertising to a competing pitch presentation for a WGU prospect; accessing, downloading, syncing, retaining, or using WGU information for purposes adverse to WGU; failing to protect WGU's client cancellation-notice rights; concealing material facts during the March 30 meeting; and acting in concert with Diana and others to divert WGU clients, prospects, information, and opportunities.

111. Garry's breaches were willful, intentional, and committed with conscious disregard of WGU's rights.

112. WGU has suffered damages as a result of Garry's breaches in amounts to be proved at trial.

COUNT V
Breach of Fiduciary Duty / Duty of Loyalty
(Against Diana Leonard)

113. WGU realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 82 as if fully set forth herein.

114. As WGU's Director of Client Services, Diana was entrusted with client-service responsibilities, access to WGU client and operational information, and responsibility for supporting and training Market Managers. Within the scope of that role, Diana owed WGU a duty of loyalty and a duty to act for WGU's benefit rather than for the benefit of Garry, FSELL, Leonard Consulting, or any competing operation. WGU pleads this Count under Georgia law. Diana's Agreement does not contain an express choice-of-law provision; Diana resides and worked from Georgia; and a substantial part of the conduct giving rise to this Count occurred in Georgia.

115. Diana breached those duties by, among other things, accessing and downloading WGU client and prospect materials outside the scope of her authorized WGU role; opening or performing tasks for other Leonards contrary to the role limitation documented in Diana's Agreement; acquiring Reading Mitsubishi login credentials and creative assets outside the scope of any legitimate WGU need; and acting in concert with Garry to acquire or misuse WGU information for purposes adverse to WGU.

116. Diana's breaches were willful and intentional.

117. WGU has suffered damages as a result of Diana's breaches in amounts to be proved at trial.

COUNT VI
Civil Conspiracy
(All Defendants)

118. WGU realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 82 as if fully set forth herein.

119. Defendants, together with additional persons acting in concert who are not named as defendants in this Complaint, combined by agreement, express or implied, to commit one or more underlying wrongful acts, including misappropriation of trade secrets, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty or duty of loyalty, and tortious interference with WGU's contractual and prospective business relationships.

120. Each Defendant committed one or more overt acts in furtherance of the conspiracy. Garry formed FSELL, accessed and downloaded WGU materials, received the New Road Advertising sharing invitation, concealed material facts during the March 30 meeting, resigned without required notice, and failed to respond to WGU's cease-and-desist demand. Diana downloaded WGU client and prospect materials, including Hazleton Nissan materials, Reading Mitsubishi credentials, and Garry-supervised account materials. FSELL became active in the WGU payment stream within days of its formation and served as the Leonard-controlled vehicle through which Garry was preparing to compete. Leonard Consulting served as the prior Leonard-controlled payment conduit and, on information and belief, participated in or benefited from the same course of conduct through Diana and Garry; WGU pleads Leonard Consulting's role more narrowly than FSELL's pending discovery into its records, devices, and communications.

121. WGU has suffered damages as a direct and proximate result of the conspiracy in amounts to be proved at trial.

COUNT VII
Unjust Enrichment
(All Defendants, in the Alternative)

122. WGU realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 82 as if fully set forth herein.

123. WGU pleads unjust enrichment in the alternative to its contract claims and to the extent any Defendant received or retained benefits not governed by an enforceable contract between that Defendant and WGU.

124. As a result of the conduct described in this Complaint, Defendants received and retained benefits including revenues or business opportunities from diverted WGU clients or prospects, the competitive value of WGU information and work product, payments made through Leonard Consulting and FSELL while material facts were concealed from WGU, avoided notice-period payments, and other benefits to be identified in discovery.

125. WGU has been correspondingly impoverished.

126. Defendants' retention of those benefits would be inequitable, and WGU is entitled to disgorgement and restitution in amounts to be proved at trial.

COUNT VIII
Punitive Damages Pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 51-12-5.1
(Against All Defendants)

127. WGU realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 82 as if fully set forth herein.

128. Based on the facts alleged in paragraphs 1 through 82, above, there is no question that Defendants engaged in willful misconduct, malice, fraud, wantonness, oppression, and the entire want of care which raises the presumption of conscious indifference to consequences.

129. As such, Defendants are liable to WGU for punitive damages in order to punish, penalize, and deter Defendants from committing the same or similar acts in the future.

COUNT IX
Attorneys' Fees and Expenses of Litigation Pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 13-6-11 (Against All Defendants)

130. WGU realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 82 as if fully set forth herein.

131. Defendants have acted in bad faith, have been stubbornly litigious, and have caused WGU unnecessary trouble and expense, including, but not limited to, the attorneys' fees, expert fees, and costs WGU has incurred or may incur in this litigation.

132. As a result, Defendants are liable to WGU for attorneys' fees, expert fees, and other expenses of litigation to the full extent permitted by applicable law pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 13-6-11.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff We Got U LLC respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment in its favor and against Defendants Garry Leonard, Diana Leonard, Leonard Consulting, LLC, and FSELL Marketing, LLC, jointly and severally to the extent permitted by law, and grant the following relief:

(a) Compensatory damages in an amount to be proved at trial;

(b) Exemplary damages pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1836(b)(3)(C) and O.C.G.A. § 10-1-763(b);

(c) Punitive damages pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 51-12-5.1;

(d) Disgorgement and restitution of Defendants' unjust enrichment;

(e) Reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1836(b)(3)(D), O.C.G.A. § 10-1-764, O.C.G.A. § 13-6-11, and any other basis under applicable law;

(f) Pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the maximum rates allowed by law;

(g) Temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief: (i) enjoining Defendants and all persons acting in concert with them from any further misappropriation, use, or disclosure of WGU's trade secrets or confidential business information; (ii) requiring the return and certified destruction of all copies of WGU trade secrets and confidential business information in Defendants' possession, custody, or control; (iii) prohibiting solicitation of WGU clients or prospects identified herein through use of WGU trade secrets, confidential business information, or improperly obtained work product; and (iv) requiring such further affirmative measures as the Court deems necessary to remedy and prevent the harms alleged; and

(h) Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

Plaintiff We Got U LLC demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

This Memorandum of Understanding (this "MOU") is made and entered into on this May 20, 2025 by and between:

We Got U LLC, a company located at 651 N. Broad Street, Suite 205 #1102 Middletown, DE 19709 (the "Company"), and Garry Leonard (the "Senior Marketing Manager"), both of whom are collectively known as the "Parties."

1. PURPOSE & SCOPE

This Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") outlines the profit-sharing arrangement between the Company and the Senior Marketing Manager for work performed on We Got U LLC client accounts. This agreement is intended solely to define the terms of profit-sharing and does not imply or confer any ownership interest in We Got U LLC, which remains under the ownership of Robin Burnette.

2.PROFIT-SHARING TERMS

2.1. The Company agrees to provide the Senior Marketing Manager with a profit share based on the sales closed or brought in from We Got U LLC clients, under the following terms and conditions:

The Senior Marketing Manager shall be entitled to profit sharing based on sales performance within a calendar month. Only one (1) profit-sharing tier may apply per month, determined solely by the first qualifying condition met. These tiers are mutually exclusive and cannot be combined. Additionally, paid services shall be excluded from the calculation of monthly revenue or sales.

2.1.a 25% Profit Share: If the Senior Marketing Manager closes or brings in a total of $75,000 in sales for a certain month through their sole effort.

2.1.b 35% Profit Share: If the Senior Marketing Manager closes or brings in a total of $300,000 in sales for a certain month through their sole effort.

2.1.c 35% Profit Share: If the Market Managers (excluding the Senior Marketing Manager's individual sales) closes or brings in a total of $300,000 in sales within a given month.

To qualify under this provision:

* The accounts generating these sales must be directly managed by a member of the sales team, with strategic oversight and supervision by the Senior Marketing Manager.

* The sales must be completed by members of the sales team, not including the Senior Marketing Manager's individual performance.

2.2 If the Senior Marketing Manager's sales drop below $75,000 in any given month, the profit-sharing terms will revert to zero for that month. However, if the Senior Marketing Manager's sales reach or exceed $75,000 in any subsequent month, the applicable profit-sharing terms will be reinstated for that month. This adjustment is evaluated on a month-to-month basis.

2.3 Senior Marketing Manager will not be eligible for profit sharing on deals they secure on their own and for which they receive a commission, thereby preventing duplication of earnings for the same transaction.

2.4 For co-managed accounts, profit sharing will begin six (6) months after the client's service start date with the company. During the first six months, the Senior Marketing Manager will receive fifteen percent (15%) of the account's revenue in place of profit sharing. The Senior Marketing Manager is also responsible for managing and training the sales team on how to effectively handle their own accounts and secure more deals.

However, once the Senior Marketing Manager becomes eligible for the 35% profit share—either by the team collectively reaching $300,000 in sales or by the Senior Marketing Manager individually reaching $300,000 in sales before the six-month period ends, as outlined in Section 2.1.b or Section 2.1.c of this agreement—they will no longer receive the 15% commission for co-managed accounts.

3. SALE OF THE COMPANY

In the event of a sale of the Company:

a. If the Senior Marketing Manager is entitled to a profit share of twenty-five percent (25%) or thirty-five percent (35%) at the time of sale, they shall receive their respective percentage of the net proceeds following the deduction of all applicable taxes, fees, and expenses related to the transaction.

b. The decision to sell the Company shall be made at the sole discretion of Robin Burnette and Angelica Del Rosario, who shall determine, as they see fit, the timing, terms, and conditions of such sale.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY

Both Parties acknowledge that during the course of their engagement, they may acquire confidential, proprietary, or commercially sensitive information. Each Party agrees to:

- Maintain the confidentiality of such information;
- Use such information solely for purposes contemplated in this Agreement;
- Not disclose such information to any third party without the express written consent of the other Party, unless required by law.

This obligation shall survive termination of this Agreement.

- Not disclose such information to any third party without the express written consent of the other Party, unless required by law.

This obligation shall survive termination of this Agreement.

5. TERM

The term of this MOU shall begin on the Effective Date and remain in effect until terminated by either Party with a 30-day written notice.

6. GOVERNING LAW

This MOU shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware.

7. AUTHORIZATION AND EXECUTION

The signing of this MOU indicates that the Parties understand and agree to the terms outlined above.

This MOU shall be signed by the Company and the Senior Marketing Manager and shall be effective as of the date first written above.

Job Description: Chief Operating Officer (COO) at Renova Staffing

Company: Renova Staffing
Position Type: Full-Time

Overview

The Chief Operating Officer (COO) at Renova Staffing is a key leadership position responsible for overseeing daily operations, managing staff, and driving business growth. The COO ensures that Renova Staffing's operations run efficiently and that the company achieves its financial and strategic objectives. This role combines leadership, sales execution, and operational oversight with a unique performance-based compensation structure.

Key Responsibilities

- Lead hiring, training, and performance management processes, including hiring and termination decisions.
- Conduct discovery calls and Client Needs Assessments (CNAs) to drive new business opportunities.
- Match VAs to prospect clients
- Meet/Communicate with client to review how their assigned VAs are doing
- Oversee proposal and contract processes, ensuring accurate and timely completion within Proposify.
- Manage staff operations to ensure consistent client placement quality and retention.
- Collaborate with the executive team to establish long-term growth strategies.
- Track, analyze, and report operational and financial performance metrics.
- Ensure compliance with company policies and contractual obligations.

Compensation Structure

The COO role features a hybrid compensation model designed to reward direct contribution and overall company growth.

1. Base Salary
    - A competitive base salary of $10,833 will be provided.
    - If profit share and commission earnings surpass the base salary amount, the base salary will be eliminated, and compensation will be based solely on performance (profit share + commissions).

2. Commissions
    - For each placement personally completed by the COO, the COO shall receive a commission equal to fifty percent (50%) of the gross profit derived from such placement. Gross profit shall be defined as the difference between the hourly client bill rate and the hourly pay rate of the placed VA, multiplied by the actual hours worked. This commission shall apply to all bill rates and shall not be capped at any hourly rate example.

Note: Commissions on personally completed placements are separate from profit share. Commissions will not apply to accounts placed directly by Robin Burnette or another designated team member; only profit share will apply to those accounts.

3. Marketing Spend and Revenue Accountability
    - Renova Staffing will allocate a specific marketing budget (amount to be determined) to drive growth and eliminate the need for a fixed salary. The leads from those efforts will be taken straight to the COO's Calendly for her to handle and close.
    - Exceptions: The COO will not receive commission for accounts or placements that go directly to Robin Burnette or another designated team member. She will only receive profit sharing for those accounts instead.

4. Profit Share
    - The COO shall be entitled to twenty-five percent (25%) of the Company's net profits, calculated as gross revenues minus direct operating expenses, less a reasonable reserve for company cash flow (not to exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of gross revenues).
    - The Company shall provide quarterly financial statements to the COO and, upon reasonable notice, allow the COO to review books and records to verify the calculation of profits.
    - The COO will also have access to the company forecast sheet for transparency.

      Note: We Got U currently lends funds to Renova Staffing to cover half of the COO's base salary. That loan must be reimbursed when Renova Staffing becomes profitable.

5. Change of Control / Sale of Business

In the event of a sale, merger, transfer of ownership, or other change of control of Renova Staffing, the compensation provisions herein (including commissions and profit share) shall remain in full force and effect and shall be binding on any successor entity.

If the COO's role is terminated without cause within twenty-four (24) months following a change of control, the COO shall be entitled to a severance payment equal to twelve (12) months of average total annual compensation (base salary, commissions, and profit share), based on the preceding twelve (12) months, or twenty-five percent (25%) of net proceeds from the sale—whichever is greater.

In the event of a merger, there will be no transfer of ownership; however, if the company is sold, the COO will receive 25% of the sale proceeds.

6. Paid Time Off and Holidays

   The COO shall be entitled to five (5) days of paid time off per calendar year, in addition to standard company holidays as listed in the annual holiday calendar.

   After two (2) consecutive years of employment, paid time off shall increase to ten (10) days per year.

   Vacation or time off shall not reduce the COO's eligibility for base salary, commissions, or profit share.

   The COO's regular work schedule allows for departure around 3:30 p.m. daily for carpool responsibilities. For recurring Monday and Friday meetings, the COO may begin on computer and switch to phone for the latter portion while traveling.

Compensation Example (if Commissions + Profit Share overtakes Base Pay)

This is based on if a $10/hr VA works a total of 40 hours a week and is paid $4/hour. Calculations may change if they are a $15/hr VA which is paid between $7-8 per hour.

- Average VA placement: 40 hours per week
- Monthly sales per VA: $1,733
- Monthly salary per VA at average $4 per hour: $693
  If the COO places 70 VAs personally:
  - Sales = $121,333.34
  - Expenses = $48,510
  - Cash Flow (25%) = $30,333.34
  - Net Profit = $42,490
  - Commission = $8400 ($3 x 70 x 40)
  - Profit Share (25%) minus commissions to avoid double dipping = $10,622.5
  - Final earnings = $8,400 + $10,622.5 = $19,022.5

Job Description: Director of Client Services at We Got U

Company: We Got U
Position Type: Full-Time

Overview

The Director of Client Services is responsible for overseeing the onboarding and training of Market Managers while serving as the central point of contact for client services and success. This role ensures that both clients and Market Managers are equipped with the tools, knowledge, and direction needed to achieve high-quality fulfillment and exceptional client outcomes.

Key Responsibilities

- Lead onboarding and training programs for Market Managers to ensure they can effectively manage client relationships and direct fulfillment teams.
- Support client onboarding processes by guiding new clients through systems, expectations, and service delivery protocols.
- Train Market Managers on best practices for task delegation, communication, and fulfillment team collaboration.
- Act as the primary resource for Market Managers, addressing questions, resolving challenges, and providing ongoing mentorship.
- Partner with leadership to develop and implement strategies that improve client satisfaction, retention, and overall service delivery.
  Establish standardized processes and documentation for consistent client services across the organization.
- Monitor client onboarding and fulfillment performance metrics, recommending improvements where necessary.
- Special Consideration: Will not be allowed to open/do any tasks for any other Leonard that is employed by We Got U.

Qualifications

- Proven experience in client services, account management, or operations, ideally in marketing, staffing, or a related industry.
- Strong leadership and training skills, with the ability to mentor and coach teams effectively.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills with a client-first mindset.

- Highly organized with the ability to manage multiple projects and stakeholders simultaneously.
- Problem-solving skills and the ability to create scalable processes.

Job Description: Chief Operating Officer (COO) at We3Media

Company: We3Media
Position Type: Full-Time

Overview

The Chief Operating Officer (COO) at We3Media is a senior executive role responsible for overseeing and optimizing the company's operations, systems, and performance across all departments. The COO will ensure the company's day-to-day activities run smoothly while aligning operational excellence with We3Media's strategic growth goals. This position demands a strong leader who can build scalable systems, manage performance, and ensure profitability and efficiency in all operational areas.

Key Responsibilities

- Oversee all operational departments, including fulfillment, creative, client success, and administration.
- Develop and implement systems and workflows to improve efficiency, communication, and accountability.
- Collaborate with department heads to ensure client deliverables are met on time and at the highest quality.
- Lead hiring, training, and performance evaluations across operational teams.
- Review and manage project timelines, task delegation, and cross-departmental collaboration.
- Establish and track KPIs for operations, client satisfaction, and profitability.
- Support the President and executive leadership in developing and executing growth strategies.
- Identify and resolve bottlenecks in fulfillment and service delivery processes.
- Ensure compliance with company policies, operational standards, and performance benchmarks.
- Report regularly on operational performance, resource allocation, and profit margins.

Compensation Structure

The COO position features a performance-based compensation model designed to reward both operational success and company profitability.

1. Profit Share
    - The COO receives 25% of We3Media's net profit, calculated after expenses and a 25% allocation for company cash flow.
2. Performance Bonuses (Optional Add-on)
    - Additional bonuses may be awarded based on operational KPIs such as client retention, team efficiency, and revenue growth milestones.

Qualifications

- Proven experience in operations, preferably in a marketing, creative, or digital agency environment.
- Strong leadership and communication skills with the ability to manage multi-departmental teams.
- Expertise in process development, workflow optimization, and performance management.
- Data-driven mindset with proficiency in project management tools and analytics.
- Demonstrated ability to execute at a high level with minimal oversight while aligning with company objectives.

Diana Leonard agrees to the aforementioned terms of work with We Got U, Renova Staffing, and We3Media. Your signature below signifies your 100% commitment to executing the Standards of Performance set forth by We Got U, Renova Staffing, and We3Media Management.

Matter: We Got U LLC v. Garry Leonard (pre-suit)

Regarding: Demand to Cease and Desist, Return Property, and Preserve Evidence

Mr. Leonard:

This firm represents We Got U LLC ("We Got U" or the "Company"). We write to demand that you immediately cease any use or disclosure of We Got U's confidential and trade-secret information, return all Company property and information in your possession, custody, or control, and preserve every document, device, account, and communication relevant to the conduct described below. Litigation against you and any persons or entities acting in concert with you will be filed absent immediate and complete compliance with the demands below.

We Got U has assembled substantial forensic evidence from its Google Workspace audit logs, supported by witness testimony, contemporaneous account activity, your own March 30, 2026 statement that you intended to start a competing digital marketing agency, and evidence of substantial downloading and synchronization of Company files in the weeks and months leading up to your departure. This is a serious matter. We strongly recommend that you retain counsel before responding.

I. Background

In your role as We Got U's Senior Marketing Manager beginning in or about May 2025, you had access to highly sensitive Company information, including client identities and relationships; client-specific advertising budgets; CRM snapshots and CRM data; pricing structures; advertising calendars; capabilities decks; business-plan presentations; case studies; training materials; and creative work product, including artwork, characters, eblast designs, popup designs, and video-production materials.

Section 4 of the Memorandum of Understanding with We Got U that you executed on or about May 20, 2025 (the "MOU") requires you to maintain the confidentiality of confidential, proprietary, and commercially sensitive information; to use such information solely for purposes contemplated by the MOU; and not to disclose such information to any third party without We Got U's express written consent. That confidentiality obligation expressly survives termination.

Independent of the MOU's express confidentiality covenant, you served as We Got U's agent. As Senior Marketing Manager, you held supervisory authority over the Company's market managers, held yourself out to clients and prospects as a representative of the Company, managed client relationships, and exercised authority on the Company's behalf. As the Company's agent, you owed We Got U fiduciary duties of loyalty, care, and disclosure. Those duties prohibited you, during the agency relationship, from secretly competing with We Got U, diverting its business opportunities, soliciting or redirecting its clients for a competitor, using Company information for personal gain, or acting adversely to the Company's interests.

Much of the Company information at issue also qualifies as trade secrets under the federal Defend Trade Secrets Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1836 et seq. ("DTSA"), and the Delaware Uniform Trade Secrets Act, 6 Del. C. § 2001 et seq. ("DUTSA"). We Got U derives substantial independent economic value from the non-public character of its client-specific CRM data, advertising budgets, advertising calendars, pricing information, client and prospect strategy materials, account plans, and related business information. We Got U also takes reasonable measures to protect that information, including access controls, role-based permissions, audit logging, and the express confidentiality covenant in your MOU.

On March 30, 2026, you informed the Company that you intended to start your own digital marketing agency. On April 6, 2026, you informed We Got U that you would be parting ways with the Company. We Got U disconnected your email account at garry@wegotu.us on April 7, 2026. At minimum, any access by you, or by anyone acting at your direction, to We Got U's systems, files, accounts, or credentials after your authorization was terminated or your access was disabled was without authorization.

II. The Evidence

What follows is a summary of We Got U's investigation to date, not an exhaustive account. We Got U has preserved, and continues to preserve, the underlying audit logs, witness statements, metadata, electronic records, and related evidence. The investigation remains ongoing.

A. Your October 31, 2025 Statement of Intent

On October 31, 2025, you told Lhia Roma, the Executive Assistant assigned to support your role, that with the volume of sales you claimed to be generating, you should not have to absorb the cost of "extras" you were providing to clients. In the same conversation, you stated that if you were going to leave We Got U, you would "take all [your] clients" with you.

Ms. Roma is prepared to testify under oath regarding that statement and its surrounding context. That statement is significant because the later conduct described below is consistent with a plan formed months before your departure.

B. Systematic Pre-Departure Synchronization of Company Files

Beginning in early 2026, your use of Google Drive's offline-synchronization feature dramatically escalated. The audit logs for your account, garry@wegotu.us, reflect 1,451 "Item content synced" events between October 16, 2025 and April 8, 2026. That designation reflects the synchronization of file content from Google Drive to one or more local devices.

The monthly distribution is as follows:

- October 2025: 32 events;
- November 2025: 71 events;
- December 2025: 85 events;
- January 2026: 69 events;
- February 2026: 583 events;
- March 2026: 550 events; and
- April 2026: 61 events (through your departure).

Your monthly volume grew nearly seven-fold between January and February 2026 and remained elevated through March. February 18, 2026 alone produced 227 sync events on your account.

The synchronized content included client-specific advertising budgets, CRM snapshots, advertising calendars, training materials, "cheat sheets," leads-tracker spreadsheets, monthly client offer documents, and Company creative assets. We Got U is unaware of any legitimate business reason for that pattern of activity, particularly in light of the timing, volume, categories of files, and your later statement that you intended to launch a competing digital marketing agency.

C. Your Targeted Downloads on March 18, 2026

In addition to bulk syncing, you executed three manually initiated download events on March 18, 2026, all within a seventy-four-second window, and all involving two clients that would shortly thereafter terminate and migrate to New Road Advertising:

- 12:35:29 UTC: Brady CDJR Advertising Calendar;
- 12:35:49 UTC: Brady CDJR CRM Spreadsheet;
- 12:36:43 UTC: Reading Mitsu CRM Report.xlsx.

In one minute and fourteen seconds, you downloaded the CRM and advertising-calendar package for Brady CDJR and the CRM report for Reading Mitsubishi.

D. The March 25, 2026 Mass Download Event

One week later, between 15:32:07 and 15:38:58 UTC on March 25, 2026 – a six-minute, fifty-one-second period – your account executed fourteen manual download events targeting eleven distinct We Got U clients:

- 15:32:07 UTC: Brady CDJR Advertising Calendar;
- 15:32:29 UTC: Brady CDJR CRM Spreadsheet;
- 15:33:51 UTC: Reading Mitsu CRM Report.xlsx;
- 15:34:45 UTC: Sunrise Honda of Searcy Advertising Budget;
- 15:34:57 UTC: Sunrise Searcy CRM Snapshot;
- 15:35:09 UTC: Sunrise Yamaha of Searcy Advertising Budget;
- 15:35:24 UTC: Sunrise Searcy CRM Snapshot;
- 15:35:50 UTC: Sunrise Honda of Rogers Advertising Budget;
- 15:36:08 UTC: Sunrise Rogers CRM Snapshot;
- 15:36:16 UTC: Sunrise Marine and Motorsports Advertising Budget;
- 15:37:31 UTC: Hot Deals Auto LLC CRM Snapshot;
- 15:37:59 UTC: Evinmotors CRM Snapshot;
- 15:38:29 UTC: Coastal Carts Advertising Calendar;
- 15:38:58 UTC: Best Auto AZ CRM Snapshot.

Each event is recorded in the Company's audit logs with the date, second-precise timestamp, your account credential, the document identifier and type, and the originating IP address.

We Got U is unaware of any legitimate business reason for a Senior Marketing Manager to download, within a six-minute window, CRM, advertising-budget, and advertising-calendar files for numerous clients spanning multiple states and ownership groups. Other account activity reinforces the pattern, including downloads of the "We Got U Capabilities Deck.pdf" on January 26 and March 23, 2026, the "CDJR OTT Case Study.pptx" on February 20, the "Hot Deals Auto LLC - Business Plan Presentation" on December 12, 2025, and the "Coastal Carts RMV - 2025 SEO Performance Report" on December 18, 2025.

E. Hazleton Nissan and Your Contact With New Road Advertising

On February 25, 2026, We Got U pitched Hazleton Nissan, a prospect you were responsible for pursuing on the Company's behalf. You had follow-up calls with Hazleton Nissan on March 14, 2026, after which you instructed the Company's team to prepare a business-plan presentation.

Two significant events occurred on March 23, 2026. First, an email from Ric Boccio of New Road Advertising was received in your We Got U email account and was later located in your spam folder. The email attached New Road Advertising's own pitch presentation for Hazleton Nissan. Second, you edited We Got U's Hazleton Nissan advertising-budget file. The metadata on the New Road pitch deck also bears a March 23, 2026 date.

On March 25, 2026 – the same day as the mass download event described above – your wife, Diana Leonard, downloaded the Hazleton Nissan advertising-budget file from the Company's Drive.

By April 2, 2026, We Got U had confirmed through Meta records – to which it has access because it disputed and recovered the Brady CDJR Meta Business Suite account directly with Meta – that New Road Advertising was the new agency for both Brady CDJR and Reading Mitsubishi.

These facts support a strong inference that you coordinated with New Road Advertising to redirect We Got U clients and prospects while using or disclosing We Got U's confidential and trade-secret information.

F. Your March 30, 2026 Admission

On March 30, 2026, you met with We Got U and stated, in substance, that you intended to establish your own digital marketing agency. That statement was made approximately two days before Brady CDJR's departure, approximately three days before Reading Mitsubishi's departure, and approximately one week before your own separation from the Company.

Your March 30 statement, together with your October 31, 2025 statement to Ms. Roma and the download and sync activity described above, supports a strong inference that your conduct was deliberate, planned, and directed toward building an off-Company file inventory and client base for a competing business or for the benefit of a competitor.

G. The Brady CDJR and Reading Mitsubishi Departures

On April 1, 2026, Brady CDJR communicated its termination to We Got U. Although Brady CDJR's engagement had not yet been memorialized in a written contract, it was an established and ongoing Company relationship that you were managing as We Got U's agent. Rather than acting to protect We Got U's relationship or opportunity, you appear to have used your position and apparent authority as Senior Marketing Manager to facilitate Brady CDJR's immediate departure to a competitor with whom you had been communicating or coordinating.

On April 2, 2026, Reading Mitsubishi communicated its termination. Reading Mitsubishi's contract with We Got U required thirty days' written notice. You, purporting to act as the Company's Senior Marketing Manager, waived that notice on We Got U's behalf without actual authority to do so. That conduct deprived We Got U of its contractual notice rights, its transition opportunity, and its opportunity to negotiate retention or cure. Your conduct with respect to both Brady CDJR and Reading Mitsubishi constitutes a serious breach of your obligations to We Got U and gives rise to substantial damages.

H. The Post-Departure Pattern

By April 10, 2026, the Brady CDJR and Reading Mitsubishi public-facing websites were displaying conspicuously similar pop-up implementations – which appear to be copied from, derivative of, or executed in coordination with work product that We Got U developed and paid for.

By April 23, 2026, New Road Advertising's current video-production style bore a conspicuous resemblance to production formats We Got U paid to develop for Brady CDJR and Reading Mitsubishi during your engagement.

Additional clients have separately raised concerns that overlap with the conduct described above, including Southeastern OPE, Roof X, The Sunshine Carts, RFX Carts, and Kent Powersports of Austin. We Got U is investigating those matters and reserves the right to add related claims and additional defendants as the evidence warrants.

III. Legal Claims

The conduct described above is unlawful in multiple, overlapping respects. We Got U is prepared to assert, at minimum, the following claims.

A. Misappropriation of Trade Secrets under the DTSA and DUTSA

The client-specific CRM data, advertising budgets, advertising calendars, pricing information, account plans, business-plan presentations, client and prospect strategy materials, and related nonpublic business information you accessed, downloaded, synchronized, retained, used, or disclosed qualify as trade secrets under the DTSA and DUTSA.

We Got U derives independent economic value from the secrecy of that information. The Company also takes reasonable measures to protect it, including access controls, role-based permissions, audit logging, restricted Google Workspace access, and the express confidentiality covenant in your MOU.

Your conduct constitutes misappropriation, including acquisition by improper means, use in violation of an express duty of confidentiality, and, on information and belief, disclosure to third parties, including New Road Advertising and/or its personnel.

We Got U is entitled to injunctive relief, actual damages, unjust-enrichment damages or a reasonable royalty, exemplary damages for willful and malicious misappropriation, and attorneys' fees as permitted by the DTSA and DUTSA. Your October 31, 2025 statement, your March 30, 2026 statement, the timing and volume of downloads, the targeted client files, the Hazleton Nissan evidence, and the subsequent client migrations all support willful and malicious misappropriation.

B. Breach of the MOU

Section 4 of the MOU is a written contractual covenant of confidentiality. You breached that covenant by acquiring, retaining, using, and/or disclosing We Got U's confidential, proprietary, and commercially sensitive information for purposes outside the MOU and without We Got U's consent.

We Got U will seek the full measure of damages caused by that breach, including damages arising from diverted client relationships, diverted business opportunities, unjust enrichment, consequential damages, interest, costs, and all other relief available by law.

C. Breach of Agent's Fiduciary Duties

As We Got U's agent, you owed the Company fiduciary duties of loyalty, care, and disclosure. Those duties applied during your engagement regardless of whether your relationship with the Company is characterized as employment, independent contracting, or another form of agency.

You breached those duties by, among other things:

1. using Company information for your personal benefit and/or for the benefit of a competitor;
2. coordinating with a competitor while still acting as We Got U's Senior Marketing Manager;
3. diverting or attempting to divert client and prospect opportunities, including Hazleton Nissan;
4. facilitating the departure of Brady CDJR and Reading Mitsubishi;
5. purporting to waive Reading Mitsubishi's contractual notice obligations without authority;
6. failing to disclose your adverse interest and competing plans; and
7. acting against We Got U's interests while continuing to occupy a position of trust and authority.

These breaches caused substantial harm to We Got U and support claims for damages, disgorgement, and injunctive relief.

D. Tortious Interference With Contract and Prospective Economic Advantage

Your conduct also supports claims for tortious interference.

Reading Mitsubishi had an existing contract with We Got U that required thirty days' written notice of termination. By facilitating, inducing, and purporting to authorize an immediate notice-free termination, you interfered with We Got U's contractual rights and caused direct damages.

Brady CDJR, Hazleton Nissan, and other clients and prospects were ongoing or prospective business relationships of We Got U. By using We Got U's confidential information and your Company position to redirect those relationships to a competing business, you interfered with We Got U's prospective economic advantage.

We Got U will seek damages for the lost relationships, lost notice periods, lost revenue, lost opportunities, unjust enrichment, and all consequential harm caused by this interference.

E. Civil Conspiracy and Aiding and Abetting

The evidence presently available indicates that your conduct was not unilateral, and that you did not act alone. Once confirmed, it supports a good-faith basis to plead claims for civil conspiracy, aiding and abetting, or other joint-liability theories against you, Diana Leonard, New Road Advertising, Ric Boccio, and any other person or entity that participated in, assisted with, encouraged, benefited from, or helped conceal the conduct described in this letter.

Each overt act in furtherance of that coordinated conduct gives rise to potential joint and several liability.

F. Conversion, Unjust Enrichment, and Equitable Disgorgement

To the extent any of the materials at issue include Company property, confidential business information, creative assets, work product, or other proprietary information not independently qualifying as trade secrets, We Got U also reserves claims for conversion, unjust enrichment, and equitable disgorgement.

You and any transferees have no right to retain, use, exploit, or benefit from We Got U property, work product, confidential information, or materials derived from them.

G. Computer Fraud and Abuse Act

We Got U is also evaluating claims under the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1030, including against persons who acted in concert with you and accessed Company files or accounts outside the scope of any authorization. Any access to Company systems, files, accounts, or credentials after your authorization was terminated or disabled was unauthorized.

We Got U is reviewing access logs, IP data, account activity, device activity, and file histories, and will assert CFAA claims where the evidence supports them.

IV. Demands

By no later than 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on May 1, 2026, you must do the following:

1. Immediately and permanently cease any further use, disclosure, copying, transmission, retention, or exploitation of any We Got U confidential information, trade secrets, work product, creative assets, client lists, CRM data, advertising budgets, advertising calendars, pricing information, training materials, capabilities materials, business-plan presentations, case studies, or Company information of any kind.
2. Immediately cease soliciting, contacting, servicing, accepting business from, or otherwise dealing with any We Got U client or prospect through the use or disclosure of We Got U confidential information or trade secrets, through relationships or opportunities diverted during your engagement with We Got U, or through any breach of your duties to We Got U.
3. Immediately cease any communication, coordination, or commercial dealing with New Road Advertising, Ric Boccio, or any other competitor to the extent such communication, coordination, or dealing involves We Got U's confidential information, trade secrets, clients, prospects, work product, or diverted business opportunities.
4. Return to We Got U every Company file, document, copy, derivative, extract, screenshot, printout, export, download, or synced file – in any form, electronic or physical – that is or has been in your possession, custody, or control, or in the possession, custody, or control of any person acting in concert with you, including Diana Leonard and any other person to whom you provided, transmitted, displayed, disclosed, or made accessible any We Got U information.
5. Provide a sworn written accounting that: (a) identifies every such file or category of files; (b) identifies every device, account, cloud-storage location, removable medium, email account, messaging account, and physical location where any copy has at any time resided; (c) identifies every person or entity to whom any copy was provided, transmitted, displayed, disclosed, or made accessible, including New Road Advertising and Ric Boccio; (d) identifies every communication concerning We Got U information, clients, prospects, or opportunities; and (e) confirms under penalty of perjury that no copy is being retained except as specifically identified.
6. Within seven calendar days of this letter, certify in writing under penalty of perjury that all remaining copies, derivatives, and extracts have been returned or permanently destroyed, with sufficient detail to permit independent forensic verification.
7. Agree to a neutral forensic protocol, at your expense or as otherwise ordered by the Court, for examination of relevant personal devices, cloud-storage accounts, and email accounts for the limited purpose of confirming the completeness of the return, deletion, and preservation obligations described in this letter. If you refuse, We Got U will seek appropriate forensic relief from the Court and will argue that refusal supports expedited discovery and injunctive relief.

8. Provide a complete written accounting of every communication you have had with New Road Advertising, Ric Boccio, or any agent, employee, contractor, or affiliate of New Road Advertising since June 1, 2025.

9. Provide a complete written accounting of every payment, consideration, commission, referral fee, business opportunity, or promise of consideration that has flowed, is flowing, or is contemplated to flow between you and New Road Advertising, Ric Boccio, any New Road affiliate, or any competing agency or business.

10. Identify every We Got U client or prospect to whom you, directly or indirectly, communicated any information about, or solicitation on behalf of, New Road Advertising, any other competitor, or any competing business of your own.

11. Identify every person who participated in, assisted with, encouraged, knew of, was informed of, or had any role in the conduct described in this letter, including Diana Leonard, any current or former We Got U personnel, any personnel of New Road Advertising, any family member, household member, business associate, or third party.

12. Preserve all evidence described in Part V below.

Your failure to comply, in whole or in part, by the deadline above will result in We Got U commencing litigation without further notice.

V. Preservation of Evidence

This letter places you on formal notice of your legal duty to preserve all evidence – paper, electronic, and otherwise – relevant to the matters described above. That duty arises under federal common law, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 37(e), and parallel Delaware authority. Litigation is imminent, and your preservation duty has attached.

Failure to preserve evidence, including by permitting automatic-deletion features, routine document-destruction practices, device "cleanup," account deletion, factory reset, wiping, alteration, concealment, or deletion, exposes you to sanctions, including monetary sanctions, evidentiary inferences, issue preclusion, the striking of defenses, and default or adverse judgment. Where evidence is intentionally destroyed, We Got U will seek all available relief, including an instruction that destroyed evidence should be presumed unfavorable to you.

You must preserve, in original form and without alteration, all evidence in the following categories.

A. Devices and Storage Media

Every laptop, desktop, tablet, smartphone, smartwatch, or similar device in your possession, custody, or control, whether personal or professional; every external hard drive, solid-state drive, USB flash drive, SD card, optical disc, and other portable storage medium; every network-attached storage or backup device; and every printer, multifunction device, scanner, or similar device with internal storage.

B. Cloud and Account-Based Information

Every Google Workspace, Google Drive, Gmail, Google Photos, Dropbox, OneDrive, iCloud, Box, or analogous cloud-storage account; every personal, business, or anonymized email account, including spam (We Got U is aware of the March 23, 2026 email from Mr. Boccio in your spam folder; auto-deletion of spam and trash must be disabled immediately), trash, archive, and "all mail" folders; every messaging application, including SMS, iMessage, WhatsApp, Signal, Telegram, Facebook Messenger, Instagram DMs, LinkedIn DMs, Slack, Microsoft Teams, Discord, and Snapchat; every voicemail system; every calendar application; every social-media account; and every payment or financial-services account reflecting any transaction relating to this matter.

You must immediately disable auto-delete, disappearing-message, spam-deletion, trash-deletion, retention, overwrite, and purge functions for all such accounts and applications.

C. Documents and Communications

Every communication between you and Ric Boccio, New Road Advertising, or any officer, employee, agent, contractor, representative, or affiliate of New Road Advertising.

Every communication between you and any current or former personnel of We Got U, including Diana Leonard, Lhia Roma, and any other person with knowledge of the conduct described in this letter.

Every communication between you and any current, former, or prospective We Got U client, including Brady CDJR, Reading Mitsubishi, Hazleton Nissan, Best Auto AZ, Coastal Carts, Evinmotors, Hot Deals Auto LLC, the Sunrise group of dealerships, Southeastern OPE, Roof X, The Sunshine Carts, RFX Carts, and Kent Powersports of Austin.

Every copy, derivative, extract, screenshot, printout, export, download, synced file, local copy, cached copy, or backup of any We Got U information, together with the metadata associated with each.

D. Specific Prohibitions

Do not delete, modify, overwrite, factory-reset, encrypt, transfer, conceal, discard, destroy, recycle, donate, or sell any device, account, storage medium, file, communication, or evidence subject to this notice.

Do not use, run, install, or permit the use of any file-shredder, disk-wipe, secure-delete, anti-forensic, cleanup, or privacy utility.

Do not permit any auto-delete, disappearing-message, spam-deletion, trash-deletion, purge, retention, or overwrite feature to operate against relevant evidence.

If you have already engaged in any such conduct since you first contemplated leaving We Got U, you must disclose that fact to undersigned counsel in writing by the deadline in Part IV. Voluntary disclosure may mitigate, but will not eliminate, the consequences of spoliation.

VI. Anticipated Litigation.

If you do not comply in full and on time with the demands in Part IV, We Got U will file suit in federal court without further notice.

The complaint will include claims under the DTSA and supplemental state-law claims, including breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, tortious interference, civil conspiracy and/or aiding and abetting, conversion, unjust enrichment, and any other claims supported by the evidence. We Got U will name all appropriate defendants, which may include Diana Leonard, New Road Advertising, Ric Boccio, and others identified through further investigation and discovery.

We Got U will seek a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction enjoining further use, disclosure, retention, or exploitation of We Got U's confidential information, trade secrets, work product, client information, and proprietary materials. We Got U will also seek expedited discovery, including targeted forensic discovery of relevant devices, accounts, communications, cloud-storage locations, and metadata.

Where the facts warrant, We Got U will seek all additional remedies available under the DTSA, DUTSA, and applicable law, including exemplary damages, attorneys' fees, disgorgement, unjust-enrichment damages, reasonable royalty damages, adverse-inference relief for spoliation, and ex parte civil seizure under 18 U.S.C. § 1836(b)(2).

This letter is a confidential settlement communication subject to Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and parallel state authority where applicable. We Got U reserves the right, however, to introduce this letter for any permissible purpose, including to establish notice, intent, knowledge, preservation obligations, or willfulness. Nothing in this letter waives any of We Got U's rights, remedies, claims, or causes of action, all of which are expressly reserved.

VII. Response

Your full written response must reach the undersigned by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on May 1, 2026.

Your response must include:

1. written confirmation of compliance with each demand in Part IV;
2. the sworn accountings required by Part IV;
3. written confirmation that the preservation obligations in Part V are in place and being honored;
4. identification of all devices, accounts, storage locations, and persons with relevant information;
5. confirmation that all auto-delete, disappearing-message, purge, and retention features have been disabled; and
6. the contact information for any counsel you have retained.

Again, we strongly recommend that you retain counsel before responding. The evidence is substantial, the legal exposure is serious, and We Got U intends to protect its rights aggressively.

Sincerely,

Josh Spoont
