UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

BRENDAN NGWA NFORBI, Plaintiff, v. SHANNON SMITH, LCSW, individually and as Chief Executive Officer; HOPE PSYCHOTHERAPY, INC., d/b/a HOPE PROGRAM; and DOES 1-10, Defendants.	Case No. 3:26-cv-07504-LJC ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO CORRECT PLAINTIFF'S NAME ON THE DOCKET [Civil L.R. 7-11] Judge: Hon. Lisa J. Cisneros

ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION TO CORRECT PLAINTIFF'S NAME ON THE DOCKET

TO THE COURT, ALL PARTIES, AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD:

Plaintiff, appearing in propria persona, respectfully moves this Court under Civil Local Rule 7-11 for an order correcting the docket to state Plaintiff's name as "Brendan Ngwa Nforbi," and directing the Clerk to conform the CM/ECF party record accordingly. Plaintiff currently appears on this docket as "Brendan Ngehsi Newanforbi."

I. RELIEF REQUESTED AND WHY IT IS ADMINISTRATIVE

This motion asks only that the docket reflect a single, consistent form of Plaintiff's name. It does not add, drop, or substitute a party. It does not amend any claim, alter any allegation, or move any deadline. No party's rights or defenses are affected. Relief of this kind is administrative within the meaning of Civil Local Rule 7-11 and falls within the Court's inherent authority to manage its own docket.

Because no party is substituted, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 25 is not implicated. Plaintiff is the same natural person before and after the requested correction.

II. GROUNDS

Plaintiff is one person who has been identified on court records under two forms of the same name: "Brendan Ngehsi Newanforbi" and "Brendan Ngwa Nforbi." Both forms appear across five actions now pending in this District. Plaintiff maintains a single PACER account under the login bngwanforbi, in which his first name is recorded as "Brendan" and his last name as "Ngwa Nforbi."

On September 1, 2026, at 8:00 a.m., Plaintiff asked the Court's ECF Help Desk to link all five actions to that single account so that he could electronically file. The Help Desk replied the same day at 12:06 p.m. that it is "unable to merge the two name into one account since the case has to reflect what is listed on the complaint," that "[o]n each complaint, the name is different," and that if Plaintiff "wish[es] to change the names on the cases," he "may submit a request to the court to do so," after which the cases may be merged into one e-filing account. That correspondence is attached to the accompanying declaration as Exhibit A. This motion is that request.

The practical consequence of the mismatch is concrete. Plaintiff is presently unable to electronically file in this action and must submit filings in paper or by mail, which delays the Court's receipt of his papers, increases his costs as an indigent pro se litigant, and creates avoidable risk of a filing arriving after a deadline. A single docket name form resolves it.

Consistency across the docket also serves the Court and the parties. Five related or coordinated actions currently identify the same plaintiff two different ways, which invites confusion in indexing, related-case administration, and service.

III. CIVIL L.R. 7-11(a) STATEMENT

Civil Local Rule 7-11(a) requires that an administrative motion be accompanied by a stipulation or by a declaration explaining why a stipulation could not be obtained. Plaintiff's declaration, filed herewith, addresses that requirement.

IV. ALTERNATIVE RELIEF

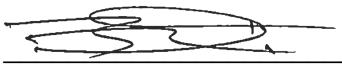

Should the Court conclude that the operative pleading's caption must be conformed rather than corrected clerically, Plaintiff requests, in the alternative, leave under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(2) to file a caption-only amended pleading under Rule 10(a) that changes nothing but the form of Plaintiff's name. Plaintiff does not seek to alter any allegation, claim, or party, and asks that any such amendment relate back and leave all existing deadlines undisturbed.

V. CONCLUSION

Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court correct the docket to state his name as "Brendan Ngwa Nforbi" and direct the Clerk to conform the CM/ECF party record.

Dated: September 10, 2026

Respectfully submitted,

BRENDAN NGWA NFORBI
