RE: Offer of Temporary Employment

Dear Brendan

On behalf of TaskUs, LLC (the "Company"), I am pleased to offer you temporary employment as a Teammate. This letter outlines the key terms and conditions of your temporary employment.

Assignment Duration and At-Will Employment
Pending satisfactory completion of our pre-employment checks, your temporary assignment is anticipated to begin on Sep 23, 2026 and is expected to conclude on or around Dec 4, 2026 ("Completion Date") or upon completion of your assignment, whichever occurs first (subject to your potential earlier termination as an at-will employee). You are being hired with the understanding that this employment is limited to the anticipated duration of the identified project or assignment. The anticipated Completion Date is an estimate and is not a guarantee of employment through that date. The Company may extend the assignment in writing.

Please note that your employment remains strictly at-will. This means that either you or the Company may terminate the employment relationship at any time, with or without cause or advance notice, prior to or after the anticipated Completion Date. Nothing in this offer or in any company policy alters the at-will status of your employment.

Compensation

- Base Hourly Rate: $22.00 per hour, paid in accordance with the Company's regular payroll schedule on alternating Fridays.

- Direct Tips & Gratuities: In addition to your base hourly rate, you are eligible to receive tips / gratuities from patrons. Tips are the property of the employees who receive them. The Company does not apply tip credits against your base wage, nor does the Company deduct credit card processing fees from any tips you receive. Tips received via credit card will be paid no later than the next regular payday following the transaction.

- FLSA & State Status: This position is a non-exempt position, which means you will be paid overtime in accordance with applicable state, federal, and local law.

- Tax and Other Withholding. The amounts of compensation described in this letter are before taxation or other withholdings required or permitted by law. The Company reserves the right to withhold all applicable federal, state, and local income, Social Security, and other employment taxes, along with any other amounts of required withholding, from all amounts of compensation and other remuneration payable to you, whether as direct compensation or pursuant to any of the compensation or benefit plans in which you may participate.

Retention Bonus

You will earn a one-time gross retention bonus of $1,000 if you remain employed through Dec 4, 2026 ("Retention Date") and, as of that date, you are in good standing, meaning you do not have an active written warning or more serious corrective action. If your employment ends for any reason before the Retention Date, the bonus will not be earned, except as required by applicable law. Any earned bonus will be paid on the next regular payday or earlier if required by California final-pay law, and it will be subject to applicable tax withholdings. For non-exempt employees, the bonus will be included in the regular rate of pay, with any resulting overtime adjustment paid as required by law.

Location & Travel

This position will be based at USA - San Jose - San Jose (Delivery). TaskUs reserves the right to edit, alter, modify, or change work location or telecommuting benefits as needed.

If your residential address changes, you must inform TaskUs within three (3) business days of such change. Even on a Cirrus campaign or other remote work arrangement, TaskUs reserves the sole discretion to modify, alter, or change your work location, and require you to report to work on-site at a TaskUs site or office. Your refusal to report to an office when instructed by TaskUs may result in the termination of your employment.

As part of your duties, you may be required to travel both domestically and internationally. The details of any such travel will be shared with you in detail as the need arises.

Shift & Schedule

If you are scheduled to work between 8:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m., you will be eligible to receive a shift differential equal to 10% of your hourly rate in accordance with TaskUs's shift differential policy. The shift differential will be included in your regular rate. The policy may be changed prospectively upon appropriate notice, but no change will reduce compensation already earned.

First Day/Schedule Information

TaskUs Orientation + Defensive Driving Course: 9/23/2026 - 9/25/2026, 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM
Classroom:1631 N 1st Street Suite 200 San Jose CA 95112
Training Dates/Times: 9/28/2026, 8:00 AM - 5:00PM,
Production Date: 9/29/2026
Closed-course training: 29355 Arnold Drive in Sonoma, California
Production Days Off: Thursday , Friday
Production Hours: 2PM - 11PM
Production Depot: 3030 Corvin Dr. Santa Clara, CA, 95051
Schedule Hoop: 7 days/week 06:00 - 23:00 PST

TaskUs generally operates 7 days a week, 24 hours a day. The training dates, training times, production hours, days off, and other schedule information identified in this letter are the initial anticipated schedule and are not a guarantee of a fixed or permanent schedule. Based on business needs, you may be assigned a flexible or rotating work schedule. Your scheduled workdays, days off, shift, and start and end times may change from one scheduling period to another. TaskUs will ordinarily provide your schedule at least 48 hours before the first affected shift begins through the Company's designated scheduling system or another written electronic method.

Business needs may also require you to work weekends, holidays, additional shifts, extended shifts, or mandatory overtime, to the extent permitted by applicable law. TaskUs may change a previously issued schedule or assign overtime on shorter notice due to unexpected client demand, service disruptions, emergencies, employee absences, or other business needs.

You are expected to work your assigned schedule and any mandatory overtime unless an absence or schedule exception is approved by the Company or protected by applicable law. Promptly contact Human Resources if you need a schedule adjustment or need to take time off for a legally protected reason. The Company prohibits retaliation for requesting or using a protected schedule adjustment, accommodation, leave, or other workplace right.

You are not required to continuously monitor Company communications while off duty and will not be considered on call unless TaskUs expressly notifies you otherwise.

Employee schedule change and transfer requests will generally not be permitted within the first 6 months of employment. However, TaskUs reserves the right to edit, alter, modify, or change any of the schedules set forth above at its sole discretion at any time during your employment. Nothing in this paragraph limits a legally protected request for accommodation, leave, transfer, or schedule modification.

Benefits

During your employment, you will be eligible only for those benefits for which you qualify under the applicable plan documents and Company policies. Any applicable eligibility requirements, coverage dates, waiting periods, exclusions, and benefit terms are controlled by the governing plan documents. Nothing in this letter changes those documents or guarantees eligibility for any benefit. Subject to applicable law and the governing plan documents, the Company reserves the right to amend or discontinue a benefit plan. Contact the Benefits team with eligibility or enrollment questions.

Paid Sick Leave

Pursuant to California Labor Code for employees who work in California, they will accrue PST at the rate of 1 hour for every 30 hours worked up to a maximum bank of 80 hours of PST, or the equivalent of 10 workdays (based on the employee's work schedule), whichever is greater. Once an employee's PST balance reaches their overall accrual cap, no further PST will accrue until previously accrued PST is used. Employees will not be given retroactive credit for any period of time in which they do not accrue PST because their balance was at the accrual cap. For accrual purposes, exempt employees are assumed to work 40 hours per workweek unless their normal workweek is fewer than 40 hours per week, in which case PST accrues based upon the employee's normal workweek hours. Nonexempt employees accrue PST based on all hours worked, including overtime. Employees may carry over all accrued but unused PST from one benefit year to the next

Conditions of Employment

Your employment is at will and subject to the Temporary Assignment and At-Will Employment section above. This letter does not create employment for a fixed or guaranteed duration. No oral statement or Company policy changes the at-will relationship. Any agreement changing that relationship must be in a written agreement expressly stating that intent and signed by you and an authorized representative of the Company.

You are expected to perform your duties with care, skill, and diligence, and to abide by all Company policies, including the Global Code of Conduct, and any other policies or rules set forth in the Employee Handbook or otherwise distributed by your supervisor or Human Resources at all times. Upon hire, you will be required to read and sign an acknowledgement of receipt of the Employee Handbook and any applicable state supplement. You further understand that your role and duties may be adjusted at any time at the Company's sole discretion based on business needs and subject to applicable law..

This conditional offer is contingent on satisfactory completion of job-related background and other screening permitted by applicable law and on your timely completion of federal employment-eligibility verification. The Company will provide required standalone disclosures and obtain required authorizations before obtaining a consumer or investigative consumer report.

Criminal-history information will be requested and considered only after a conditional offer and in accordance with the California Fair Chance Act and applicable local ordinances. Before taking adverse action based on conviction history, the Company will complete any required individualized assessment, provide required pre-adverse-action notice and information, allow the legally required response period, consider timely submitted information, and provide any required final notice.

Credit checks, drug tests, Social Security number traces, investigative reports, and other screening will be required only when lawful, job-related, and appropriate for the position. Any testing or consideration of cannabis-related information will comply with applicable California law. The Company may permit employment to begin while screening remains pending. Continued employment remains subject to lawful review of the completed results and the at-will provisions of this letter.

Your employment with the Company is also contingent upon meeting all expectations of the New Hire Training Program, including achievement and maintenance of campaign certifications. This may include passing assessment exams, maintaining satisfactory accuracy rates, and other metrics communicated by the Company. Failure to meet these expectations may result in disciplinary action up to and including separation of employment. All Teammates and Team Leaders are required to support online productive work which may include voice calls, chat/email interactions, and/or case management.

This offer is also contingent on your execution of the Company's separate Non-Disclosure and Invention Assignment Agreement and Mutual Arbitration Agreement. Those agreements will be provided separately and will control their respective subject matters. The invention-assignment agreement will include the notice required by California Labor Code section 2870. Nothing in this letter or those agreements prohibits legally protected communications or activity, including reporting suspected legal violations or discussing wages, hours, or working conditions.

This offer will be withdrawn (whether or not you have already signed it) if any of the above conditions are not satisfied. Unless and until all such steps have been completed, this conditional offer of employment may be withdrawn and you should not resign from your current employment, otherwise alter your employment status, or alter any personal circumstances in reliance on this conditional offer. Generally, the screening process takes 2 weeks. If you have any questions regarding where we are in the screening process, please do not hesitate to contact me.

In addition, on your first day of employment, please be sure to bring your identification card(s) to establish your identity and eligibility for employment in the United States. See the enclosed Lists of Acceptable Documents for reference. If you are unable to provide such verification within three business days of the date your employment begins, this offer of employment will be withdrawn.

By signing this offer letter, you represent and warrant that you are not party to any enforceable agreement or obligation that would prevent or restrict you from performing your duties as an employee of the Company. Alternatively, if you are subject to such an agreement or obligation, you have informed or will promptly inform the Company of that fact, you affirm that you have provided or will provide promptly a copy of any such agreement or obligation to the Company, and you affirm that you have complied and will comply with it, and that your employment with the Company does not violate any such agreement or obligation.

We look forward to you joining our Ridiculously Good team at TaskUs!"

Shelly Porter

Vice President, Human Resources

Acknowledgment and Acceptance

Please review this letter along with the attached DLSE Form 2810.5 Notice to Employee. This offer will remain open within three (3) business days. To indicate your acceptance of the Company's offer on the terms and conditions set forth in this letter, please sign below.

ACCEPTANCE OF EMPLOYMENT TERMS:

I have read and understood the foregoing provisions of this offer of employment, and I accept employment with TaskUs LLC. I understand that my employment is at-will and temporary in nature.

I represent that I can perform my duties for the Company without violating any lawful obligation that applies to me. To the extent enforceable under applicable law, I will comply with obligations concerning confidentiality, trade secrets, intellectual property, and the authorized use of another person's or entity's information or materials. I will not bring to the Company or use, disclose, copy, or retain any confidential, proprietary, or trade secret information belonging to a current or former employer or another third party unless I have written authorization to do so. I will promptly notify the Company if a lawful obligation restricts my ability to perform the duties of my position.

References to noncompetition, customer or employee nonsolicitation, or similar restrictive covenants do not require disclosure of or compliance with a restriction that is void or unenforceable under California law. Nothing in this paragraph restricts lawful competition or solicitation protected by California law. Lawful obligations concerning confidential information, trade secrets, and intellectual property remain applicable.
