United States Background Consent Form

To: Brendan Nforbi
RE: Acknowledgement Consent Form
Date: 09/14/2026

By signing below, I consent to the Company releasing any information obtained in this background screening to TaskUs USA LLC for purposes of assisting the Company and TaskUs USA LLC in making a determination as to my eligibility for employment (including independent contractor assignments, as applicable), retention, termination, or for other lawful employment purposes. I understand that nothing herein shall be construed as an offer of employment or a contract for services.

Employee Signature: {{BigSig_es_:signer1:signature:dimension(width=65mm, height=16mm)}}
Date: 09/14/2026

NON-DISCLOSURE AND INVENTION ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

This Non-Disclosure and Invention Assignment Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by and between the individual identified in the signature block below as the Employee ("Employee", "I", or "me") and TaskUs Holdings, Inc. ("TaskUs"), with principal office at 1650 Independence Drive, New Braunfels, TX 78132 USA, for the benefit of TaskUs and any Affiliate (as defined below) that I become employed with or perform services for or that otherwise has a protectable interest covered by this Agreement (the "Company"), collectively the "Parties."; and

As a condition of my employment with the Company, and in exchange for good and valuable consideration that includes my employment, access to a portion of the Company's Confidential Information (defined below), and such other consideration as may be provided for in this Agreement or provided to me as consequence of this Agreement, the sufficiency of which the Parties acknowledge, and subject to any state-specific modification under Appendix A that may apply to Employee, the Parties agree as follows.

1. Confidential Information.

(a) "Confidential Information" refers to information and compilations of information, in any form (tangible or intangible), related to the business of the Company that I first gain knowledge of or access to as a consequence of my employment with the Company to the extent that the Company has not made the information or compilation public or authorized public disclosure of it and it is not readily available through lawful and proper means to the public or others in the industry who have no obligation to keep it confidential. I understand that in reliance upon my promises in this Agreement, the Company will allow me access to a portion of the Company's Confidential Information during my employment with the Company. Confidential Information shall include but shall not be limited to Trade Secrets. "Trade Secrets" are items of information that qualify as a trade secret under applicable state or federal law. Information will normally qualify as a trade secret under such laws if (i) it derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use, and (ii) it is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy. Something is not acquired through proper means if acquired through theft, bribery, misrepresentation, breach, or inducement of a breach of a duty to maintain secrecy by contract or otherwise, or espionage through electronic or other means.

(b) By way of illustration but not limitation, Confidential Information is presumed to include (i) trade secrets, inventions, mask works, ideas, processes, formulas, software in source or object code, data, programs, computer programs, un-patented inventions, trade secrets, other works of authorship, TaskUs Confidential know-how, improvements, discoveries, developments, designs and techniques and any other proprietary technology and all Intellectual Property Rights (as defined below) therein; (ii) information regarding research, development, new products, marketing and selling, business plans, budgets and unpublished financial statements, licenses, prices and costs margins, discounts, credit terms, pricing and billing policies, quoting procedures, methods of obtaining business, forecasts, future plans and potential strategies, financial projections and business strategies, operational plans, financing and capital-raising plans, activities and agreements, internal services and operational manuals, methods of conducting Company business, suppliers and supplier information, and purchasing; (iii) information regarding customers and potential customers of Company, including customer lists, names, addresses, the names of representatives of the Company's customers responsible for entering into contracts with the Company, their needs or desires with respect to the types of products or services offered by Company, proposals, bids, contracts and their contents and parties, the type and quantity of products and services provided or sought to be provided to customers and potential customers of Company, customer processes or systems, and leads and referrals to prospective customers, and other non-public information relating to customers and potential customers; (iv) information regarding any of Company's business partners and their services, including names, representatives, proposals, bids, contracts and their contents and parties, the type and quantity of products and services received by Company, and other non-public information relating to business partners; (v) analytical information maintained by personnel managers regarding personnel and their performance, skills, staffing capabilities, and cost; (vi) vendor information, such as the identity of the Company's vendors, their names and addresses, the names of representatives of the Company's vendors responsible for entering into contracts with the Company, the financial arrangements between the Company and such vendors, specific vendor needs and requirements, and leads and referrals to prospective vendors; (vii) any other non-public information which a competitor of Company could use to the competitive disadvantage of Company; and (viii) any information provided to the Company in confidence by third parties that the Company is obligated to keep confidential by law or through contractual commitments (such as personal identifying information like social security numbers or a third-party's data regarding its products (existing or under development) and/or customers entrusted to the Company) ("Third-Party Confidential Information"). Due to its special value and utility as a compilation, a confidential compilation (like a customer list) will remain protected as Confidential Information even if some items of information within the list are in the public domain. Private disclosure of otherwise Confidential Information to parties the Company is doing business with for business purposes shall not cause the information to lose its protected status under this Agreement. Confidential Information does not include information lawfully acquired by a non-management employee about wages, hours or other terms and conditions of employment when used for purposes protected by §7 of the National Labor Relations Act (the NLRA) such as joining or forming a union, engaging in collective bargaining, or engaging in other concerted activity for their mutual aid or protection, or soliciting others to do so.

(c) I acknowledge that the Company is engaged in a highly competitive business and that its competitive position depends upon its ability to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information and Trade Secrets which were developed, compiled and acquired at great effort, expense, and goodwill. I recognize that disclosing, divulging, revealing or using any of the Confidential Information or Trade Secrets, other than in connection with the Company's business and specifically authorized by the Company, will be highly detrimental to the Company, and that serious loss of business and pecuniary damage may result therefrom.

(d) Accordingly, I agree that during my employment and for so long thereafter as the information qualifies as Confidential Information under this Agreement, I will not engage in any use or disclosure of Confidential Information that is not authorized by the Company and undertaken for the benefit of the Company consistent with my employment duties. To comply with this obligation, except as specifically required in the performance of my employment duties or with prior written authorization of the TaskUs Legal Department, and the Company's customer where the customer's Third-Party Confidential Information is concerned, I will not, directly or indirectly use, disclose, download, upload, copy, transfer, send, delete or disseminate to any other person, organization or entity any Confidential Information or Trade Secrets. And, I will comply with all Company policies and directives concerning the use, storage, and transfer of Confidential Information, and those of customers where customer Confidential Information is concerned. I understand that these obligations do not prohibit my use of generally available knowledge, skill and education that is not specific to the Company or its business relationships but is instead knowledge generic to the industry or my profession.

(e) Unless prohibited by law from doing so, I will notify the Company as quickly as possible after being served with a subpoena, order, or other legal mandate requiring the production of Confidential Information so that the Company can take reasonable steps to protect its interests and will cooperate in the same.

(f) Nothing in this Section or its subparts shall prohibit Protected Conduct (described in Section 11 below).

2. Company and Customer Property Obligations / Return of Property Upon Termination

(a) I agree to keep and maintain adequate and current records (in the form of notes, sketches, drawings and in any other form that is required by Company) of all Confidential Information developed by me and all Intellectual Property that is subject to assignment to the Company under this Agreement, which records will be available to and remain the sole property of Company at all times. All records related to the Company's business activities and business development efforts created in the course of the Company's business (such as contact lists, prospect lists, calendars and notes), whether made by me or others, and wherever stored (in email, text messages, cell phones, computers or otherwise) are the property of the Company ("Company Records"), and all such records created in the course of conducting the business of a customer will be understood to be the customer's Company Records. I will preserve and maintain records of Company customers, prospects, suppliers, and other business relationships as Company Records, and will not knowingly use these records to harm the Company's business interests.

(b) I understand that I am not authorized to use these Company Records or to access and use the Company's computers, email, or related computer systems, or those of a customer, to pursue competitive business interests, and that such unauthorized access is punishable by law. All electronic files and similar items stored on Company or customer owned, issued, or sponsored devices or accounts are property of the Company or the customer unless otherwise agreed in writing as to a specific item, and I shall have no expectation of personal privacy with regard to any such stored items. I agree that any property situated on Company's premises and owned by Company, including disks and other storage media, filing cabinets or other work areas, is subject to inspection by Company's personnel at any time with or without notice.

(c) Upon termination of employment by either party or earlier if requested, and in any event within three business days after my Termination Date, I will return all Company and customer property including Company Records of the Company and its customers and any copies (tangible and intangible, electronic files, email, and otherwise) to the Company, without retaining copies in any form. I agree that I will not copy, delete, or alter any information contained upon my Company computer or Company equipment before I return it to Company. If I use any personal computer, server, or e-mail system to receive, store, review, prepare or transmit any Company information, including but not limited to, Confidential Information, I agree to provide Company with a computer useable copy of all such Confidential Information and then under the direction and supervision of the Company permanently delete and expunge such Confidential Information from those systems. Upon request, I will provide the Company reasonable means to access and verify that no Company Records and/or items of Confidential Information have been retained by me on personal computers, cell phones, email, or cloud storage accounts, or in any other place that is subject to my control without the Company's authorization after employment ends. However, nothing herein prohibits me from retaining records provided to me by the Company concerning my own compensation, benefits, and agreements with the Company.

(d) I agree to deliver to the Company or Company's customers, as directed by Company, immediately upon separation from employment and at any time the Company so requests (but in any event no later than three business days after my Termination Date), any computer equipment, home office equipment, automobile or other business equipment belonging to the Company or a Company customer that I may then possess or have in my control.

(e) Prior to leaving employment with the Company, I will cooperate with Company in attending an exit interview and completing and signing Company's termination statement if required to do so by Company.

(f) As used in this Agreement, my "Termination Date" refers to the last day of my employment with the Company (inclusive of any period of employment with a successor), irrespective of which party terminates the relationship or why the employment relationship ends.

3. Duty of Loyalty, Regulatory Compliance, and Conflict of Interest

(a) I agree to devote my best efforts to the performance of my employment duties and to promptly notify the Company of business opportunities related to the Company's business without pursuing them independently for personal gain without the written authorization of the Company. I also agree avoid engaging in any conduct that creates a conflict of interest or that would be contrary to my duty of loyalty such as, but not limited to competing with the Company, assisting others in their efforts to compete with the Company, or interfering with key business relationships of the Company (such as customers, contractors, employees, licensors, and vendors) for the benefit of a Competitor.

(b) I agree not to use my position, influence, knowledge of Confidential Information or the Company's assets for personal gain, except as specifically provided in this Agreement, and to comply with Company policies concerning conflicts of interest. I understand that under Company policy, as it may be modified from time to time, subject to the limitation in part (c) below, holding a direct or indirect financial interest, including joint ventures in or with a supplier, vendor, customer or prospective customer without disclosure and the express written approval of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company is strictly prohibited. I will in all cases comply with applicable laws including but not limited to export and trade controls, embargoes, U.K. Bribery Act, Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and shall report any suspected violations to Company under the applicable Company policies. I will further comply with all Company policies, employment guidelines, and applicable Company code of conduct and refer to the repository of such global or local policies, which may be occasionally updated by written notice to me. I agree not to export, reexport, or transfer, directly or indirectly, any U.S. technical data acquired from Company or any products utilizing such data, in violation of the United States export laws or regulations.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement prohibits me from owning a non-controlling interest consisting of two percent (2%) or less of any class of securities in any publicly traded company or passive investments through an independently controlled fund such as a mutual fund, provided that I am not a controlling person of, or a member of a group that controls, such business.

4. Non-Solicitation of Employees

(a) I agree that I will not use any Trade Secrets or Confidential Information to help another business entity hire, recruit or solicit any employee of the Company to leave (meaning terminate) his, her, or their employment with the Company, except where permitted to do so in writing by the Company.

(b) If I do not primarily reside or work in California, then I agree that for a period of twelve (12) continuous months after my Termination Date I will not participate (directly or through assistance to others) in soliciting any Covered Employee to leave (meaning terminate) his, her, or their employment with the Company, or assist a Competitor in hiring a Covered Employee away from the Company, without the Company's written authorization to do so. This restriction is referred to as my "Employee Nonsolicit" covenant.

(c) Defined Terms. A "Covered Employee" is an employee of the Company who has been entrusted with Confidential Information and that I supervised, worked with, gained knowledge of or was provided Confidential Information about in the course of my employment in the two-year period preceding my Termination Date. A "Competitor" refers to a person, entity, or organization who is engaged in (or is planning or preparing to engage in) the Company's line of business, and is in the business of producing or providing products or services that displace the business opportunities for the Company's products and/or services, or otherwise competes with them. For purposes of the Employee Nonsolicit restriction, where the restriction applies it will be presumed that the terms "solicit" or "soliciting" and their derivations mean to directly or indirectly communicate or otherwise interact with another person for the purpose of causing, motivating, or inducing the person to engage in some responsive action (such as terminating employment), irrespective of who first initiated contact. It shall not include general advertising (such as "help wanted" ads) that are not targeted at the Company's workers. The Employee Nonsolicit is understood to be reasonably and logically limited by geography to those locations where the Covered Employees are located and available for solicitation and no further geographic limitation is necessary to make the restriction reasonable.

(d) In the event that the Company should lose the services of a Covered Employee as a direct or indirect result of a breach of the Employee Nonsolicit restriction by me before injunctive relief can issue to prevent such harm, the damages to the Company resulting from such breach shall be understood to include (but may not be limited to) a sum equal to 30% of the annualized total compensation of the lost Covered Employee as a probable cost the Company will incur to cover the lost services of the Covered Employee. The forgoing damage element will be immediately payable to the Company and will only address a part of the harm caused by a breach. Such payment shall not substitute for or eliminate the Company's ability to recover additional damages of any kind (including consequential damages) that can be proven or eliminate the need for injunctive relief to prevent irreparable harm caused by such a breach.

5. Intellectual Property

(a) As used in this Agreement, the term "Intellectual Property" means all trade secrets, Copyrights, trademarks, mask work rights, patents and other intellectual property rights recognized by the laws of any jurisdiction or country, and regardless of whether containing or constituting Trade Secrets or Confidential Information as defined in this Agreement (referred to collectively as "Intellectual Property"), that were conceived, developed or made by Employee during the period of Employee's employment by or services to the Company, including Intellectual Property related to the Company's business and any other business in which the Company was engaged as of the date of termination of Employee's employment with or services to the Company (the "Intellectual Property Rights"), shall belong to and be the property of the Company or as may be further assigned to Company's customers. The term "Copyright" means the exclusive legal right to reproduce, perform, display, distribute and make derivative works of a work of authorship (as a literary, musical, or artistic work) recognized by the laws of any jurisdiction or country; and the term "Moral Rights" means all paternity, integrity, disclosure, withdrawal, special and any other similar rights recognized by the laws of any jurisdiction or country. I acknowledge that all original works of authorship which are made by me (solely or jointly with others) within the scope of and during the period of my employment with the Company and which are protectable by copyright are "works made for hire," as that term is defined under applicable law. I understand and agree that the decision whether or not to commercialize or market any invention developed by me solely or jointly with others is within the Company's sole discretion and for the Company's sole benefit (or as the Company may further direct for Company's customer(s) benefit) and that no royalty will be due to me as a result of the Company's efforts to commercialize or market any such invention.

(b) I further covenant and agree that I will promptly disclose such Intellectual Property to the Company; and make and maintain for the Company, adequate and current written records of my innovations, inventions, discoveries and improvements made solely or jointly with others, said written records to be made available to and remain the sole property of the Company at all times. I hereby assigns to the Company, without additional compensation, all rights, title, and interests in the Intellectual Property and all Intellectual Property Rights therein for purposes of the law in the United States and all foreign countries; provided, however, that the foregoing assignment shall be limited so that it does not require or create the assignment of an invention which cannot be lawfully assigned through an employment agreement if law applicable to me has a limitation of this nature (as further described in part (h) below). I covenant and agree to (i) execute assignments and all other papers and do all acts necessary to carry out the above, including enabling the Company to file and prosecute applications for, acquire, ascertain and enforce in all countries, letters patent, trademark registrations and/or copyrights covering or otherwise relating to Intellectual Property and to enable the Company to protect its proprietary interests therein (i.e., the Intellectual Property Rights); and (ii) give testimony, at the Company's expense, in any action or proceeding to enforce rights in the Intellectual Property. To the extent required by applicable Copyright laws, I agree to assign in the future (when any copyrightable Intellectual Property is first fixed in a tangible medium of expression) my Copyright rights in and to such Intellectual Property. Any assignment of Intellectual Property (and all Intellectual Property Rights with respect thereto) hereunder includes an assignment of all Moral Rights. To the extent such Moral Rights cannot be assigned to Company and to the extent the following is allowed by the laws in any country where Moral Rights exist, I hereby unconditionally and irrevocably waive the enforcement of such Moral Rights, and all claims and causes of action of any kind against Company or related to Company's customers, with respect to such rights. I further acknowledge and agree that neither my successors in-interest nor legal heirs retain any Moral Rights in any Intellectual Property (and any Intellectual Property Rights with respect thereto). In the event the Company is unable for any reason, after reasonable effort, to secure my signature on any document needed in connection with the actions specified in this Section 5, I hereby irrevocably designates and appoint the Company and its duly authorized officers and agents as my agent and attorney in fact, which appointment is coupled with an interest, to act for and in my behalf to execute, verify and file any such documents and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to further the purposes of this Agreement with the same legal force and effect as if executed by me.

(c) I further covenant and agree that the Company shall be entitled to shop rights with respect to any Intellectual Property conceived or made by me during employment with the Company that is not related in any manner to the Intellectual Property Rights but which was conceived or made on the Company's time or with the use of the Company's facilities or materials.

(d) Incorporation of Software Code. I agree that I will not incorporate into any Company software or otherwise deliver to Company any software code licensed under the GNU General Public License or Lesser General Public License or any other license that, by its terms, requires or conditions the use or distribution of such code on the disclosure, licensing, or distribution of any source code owned or licensed by Company except in strict compliance with Company's policies regarding the use of such software.

(e) I covenant and agree that I will obtain the written consent of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company in advance of any presentation or publication, social media or online posting, or submission for presentation or publication, of any speech, paper or article authored by me that is any way related to or references Company or Company's customer(s), either alone or jointly with others. I further covenant and agree that it shall be conclusively presumed as against me that any Intellectual Property Rights described by me in a patent, service mark, trademark, or copyright application, disclosed by me in any manner to a third person, or created by me or any person with whom I have any business, financial or confidential relationship, within one (1) year after cessation of my employment with the Company, was conceived or made by me during the period of employment by the Company and that such Intellectual Property be the sole property of the Company where permitted by law (this presumption is referred to as the "IP Holdover Clause").

(f) The attached Exhibit A fully describes all inventions (i) that are owned by me or in which I have an interest and were made or acquired by me alone or jointly with others before being employed by the Company, (ii) that may relate to Company's business or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development, and (iii) that I claim should not to be assigned to Company ("Excluded Inventions. If disclosure of any such Excluded Invention would cause me to violate any prior confidentiality agreement, I will not to fully describe such Excluded Invention in the attached memorandum, but shall only disclose a cursory name for such invention, a listing of the party to whom it belongs and the fact that full disclosure has not been made due to confidentiality obligations. If in the course of employment with the Company, I incorporate into a Company product, process or service an Excluded Invention owned by me or in which I have an interest, I hereby grant to the Company a nonexclusive, assignable, sublicensable, royalty-free, fully paid-up, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide license to make, have made, modify, use and sell such Excluded Invention as part of or in connection with such product, process or service, and to practice any method related thereto. If no such disclosure is attached or is blank with no items identified, I hereby represent that there are no Excluded Inventions.

(g) I acknowledge and agree that, to the extent I have created copyrightable material prior to employment with or providing services to the Company ("Pre-Existing Materials") and have agreed to permit the use by the Company and Company's customer(s) where appropriate of such Pre-Existing Materials, the Company shall have a non-exclusive, assignable, sublicensable, perpetual license to distribute in any and all media whether now known or hereafter developed, any such Pre-Existing Material provided by me to the Company from time to time during employment with the Company. I hereby represent and warrant that the foregoing license in such Pre-Existing Material does not and will not infringe the rights of any third party and hereby indemnify the Company from any and all damages resulting from a claim related to the use of such Pre-Existing Material by the Company.

(h) Excluded Inventions Notice: To the extent that the controlling law applicable to this Agreement is that of any state listed in this paragraph below, the invention assignment provisions of this Agreement will be limited to comply with such law. I acknowledge notice of the following invention assignment laws: Cal. Lab. Code, § 2870; Del. Code Title 19 § 805; Illinois 765 ILCS 1060/1-3; Kan. Stat. Section 44-130; Minn. Statutes, 13A, Section 181.78; New Jersey Statutes Title 34. Labor and Workmen's Compensation 34 § 1B-265; NY Labor Law § 203-f; N. Car. General Statutes, Art. 10A, Chapter 66, Commerce and Business, § 66-57.1; Utah Code § 34-39-1 through 34-39-3; Wash. Rev. Code, Title 49 RCW: Labor Regulations, Chapter 49.44.140); specifically, for example, I acknowledge notice that Cal. Lab. Code, § 2870 provides: "(a) Any provision in an employment agreement which provides that an employee shall assign, or offer to assign, any of his or her rights in an invention to his or her employer shall not apply to an invention that the employee developed entirely on his or her own time without using the employer's equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information except for those inventions that either: (1) Relate at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the invention to the employer's business, or actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the employer; or (2) Result from any work performed by the employee for the employer", that Illinois's limitation is substantively the same, and that the invention assignment limitation statutes in Kansas, Minnesota and Washington are the same with the exception that these statutes use the words "relates … directly to the business of the employer" instead of the words "Relate … to the employer's business" as seen in the quoted California statute.

6. Remedies

(a) I agree that compliance with the covenants set forth in this Agreement is necessary to protect the Confidential Information, business, and goodwill of the Company and Company's customer(s), and that any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by me would likely result in irreparable and continuing harm to the Company or Company's customer(s), for which money damages may not provide adequate relief. Accordingly, in the event of any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by me, or a claim in a declaratory judgment action by me that all or part of this Agreement is unenforceable, the parties agree that the Company shall be entitled to the following particular forms of relief as a result of such breach, in addition to any remedies otherwise available to it at law or equity: (a) injunctive relief, including a temporary restraining order and temporary, preliminary and/or permanent injunctions, enjoining or restraining such breach or anticipatory breach; and (b) recovery of all reasonable sums and costs, including attorneys' fees, incurred by the Company to defend or enforce the provisions of this Agreement; provided, however, that if controlling law would convert the forgoing provision into a reciprocal obligation whereby either prevailing party could recover attorney's fees and expenses, then each party will bear its own attorney's fees and expenses.

(b) No remedy or election hereunder shall be deemed exclusive but shall be cumulative with all other remedies available at law or in equity.

(c) The Company shall be deemed the prevailing party for all purposes if any relief is granted to it, irrespective of whether some relief requested by the Company is also denied.

7. Extension of Restrictive Periods

Where a restriction created by this Agreement has a post-employment time limitation the period of the restriction shall not expire and shall be tolled during any period in which I am in violation of the restriction, and therefore the restricted period shall be extended for a period equal to the time that elapses from commencement of the breach to the later of (i) the definitive termination of such breach or (ii) the final resolution of any litigation arising from such breach; provided, however, that this extension of time shall be capped so that length of my required or compelled compliance with the restriction does not exceed the length of time originally proscribed for the restriction, and if this extension would make the restriction unenforceable under controlling law it will not be applied.

8. Disclosure of Agreement; Disclosure of New Employment

In order to help ensure compliance with this Agreement, for a period of two years after the Termination Date I will disclose the terms of this Agreement and the restrictions contained herein to any person, entity, or organization that seeks to employ or use my services. During my employment I will inform the Company in writing of any offers of employment or business ventures in which I become engaged or plan to become engaged (other than employment by the Company) and for a period of two years thereafter, upon request of the Company I will promptly inform the Company in writing of all employment or business ventures in which I become engaged to help ensure compliance with this Agreement.

9. Confidential Information Belonging to Others

I affirm that I am not presently subject to a restrictive covenant or other contract or agreement of any kind which would prohibit, restrict or limit my employment with the Company. If I learn or become aware or am advised that I am subject to an actual or alleged restrictive covenant or other prior agreement which may prohibit or restrict employment by the Company, I shall immediately notify the Company of the same. I agree that I will not disclose to the Company, use for the Company's benefit, or induce the Company to use any trade secret or confidential information I may possess or any Intellectual Property belonging to any former employer or other third party except as may be permitted by such former employer or third party.

10. Employment At-Will

Employment with the Company is not for any specific duration or period of time. Except as may otherwise be agreed if I am employed to primarily work in Montana, I agree that I am an employee at-will of the Company. The employment relationship between me and the Company may be terminated by either myself or the Company at any time, with or without cause and with or without notice.

11. Protected Conduct

Nothing in this Agreement prohibits me from opposing or reporting to the relevant law-enforcement agency (such as but not limited to the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), Department of Labor, National Labor Relations Board, Equal Employment Opportunities Commission, Occupational Safety and Health Commission) an event that I reasonably and in good faith believe is a violation of law, obligates me to inform the Company before or after making such a report, prohibits me from cooperating in an investigation conducted by such a government agency, limits or affects my right to disclose or discuss criminal conduct, discrimination, harassment (including but not limited to sexual harassment or sexual assault) or retaliation, prohibits me from discussing such matters with my own legal counsel, or prohibits me from providing truthful testimony in a legal or adjudicatory proceeding (such as a judicial, administrative, or arbitration proceeding). I acknowledge notice that under the Defend Trade Secrets Act (DTSA) no individual may be held criminally or civilly liable under Federal or State trade secret law for a trade secret disclosure that complies with 18 USC §1833(b); such as a disclosure (a) made in confidence to a Federal, State, or local government official, directly or indirectly, or to an attorney; and made solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or, (b) made in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other adjudicatory legal proceeding, if such filing is made under seal. Also, under this law an individual pursuing a legal claim for retaliation by an employer for reporting a suspected violation of the law may disclose a trade secret to his/her attorney and use it in documents filed in the adjudicatory proceeding under seal provided he/she does not engage in disclosure except pursuant to order of the adjudicator. If I am not a supervisor or member of Company management, nothing in this Agreement prohibits me from using information acquired through lawful means regarding the wages, benefits, or other terms and conditions of employment of individuals employed by the Company for any purpose protected under the National Labor Relations Act (such as the right of employees to self-organization, to form, join, or assist labor organizations, or to engage in other concerted activities for their mutual aid or protection), unless the information is entrusted to me in confidence by Company as part of my job duties (such as human resource management, payroll, or benefits administration). The forgoing is collectively referred to as "Protected Conduct." This Protected Conduct provision shall not be construed to protect, invite, permit, or limit liability for illegal activity such as breaking and entering, illegal computer access (hacking) or theft of Company property.

12. Miscellaneous

(a) Governing Law and Choice of Forum. If I am employed by Company in any country other than the Philippines, the laws of the state where I am primarily employed with the Company will control the interpretation and application of this Agreement without regard to any conflicts of law principles of any other state to the contrary; provided, however, that if the Parties have entered into an arbitration agreement that includes claims arising from this Agreement, then the Federal Arbitration Act, U.S.C. § 1 et seq. shall control as to all arbitration rights. I consent to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of proper subject matter jurisdiction located in Texas, and I waive any objections to the exercise of jurisdiction over me by such courts (whether based on convenience, cost, location of witnesses or evidence, or otherwise); provided, however, that if I primarily reside and work for the Company in California, nothing herein shall require me to adjudicate in a court outside of California a claim arising in California. If I am engaged by Company in the Philippines under a Philippines employment or services contract, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Philippines, without regard to its conflict of laws provisions and I will submit myself to the jurisdiction of the courts located within the Philippines. For purposes of any claim that can, in accordance with any arbitration agreement between the Parties, be pursue in a court of law the Parties hereby irrevocably waive any objection they may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such action in the foregoing approved court(s), and further irrevocably waive any claim they may now or hereafter have that any such action brought in said court(s) has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

(b) Confidentiality and Jury Trial Waiver. The parties recognize that, should any dispute or controversy arising from or relating to this agreement be submitted for adjudication to a court, arbitration panel or other third party, all steps reasonably necessary for the preservation of the secrecy of Confidential Information must be taken. Consequently, the Parties agree that to the fullest extent permitted by controlling law they hereby waive all rights to trial by jury in any action, proceeding, claim, or counterclaim arising out of or in any way related to this Agreement.

(c) Construction. The headings contained in this Agreement are for convenience only and do not constitute part of and shall not be used to interpret this Agreement. The language in all parts of this Agreement shall be in all cases construed according to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against the Company or Employee because that party or that party's legal representative drafted it.

(d) Survival and Severability. This Agreement shall, in accordance with its terms, remain in effect after, and be unaffected by any change in position, title, duties, compensation, or other terms and conditions of my employment, or the termination of my employment (where a clause indicates it creates post-employment obligations). The provisions of this Agreement are severable. The existence of a cause of action by me against Company shall not constitute a defense to enforcement of my obligations under this Agreement. If an authorized court or authorized arbitrator ("adjudicator") determines that a covenant herein cannot be enforced as written in some part (such as time, scope of activity, or geography), the parties agree to the adjudicator's enforcement of the restrictions to such lesser extent as would make the obligation reasonable and enforceable, and/or to the reformation of the restriction to make it enforceable. If, after and/or despite application of the foregoing, any provision contained in this Agreement remains void, illegal, or unenforceable, then it shall be severed, and the other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect as if the offending provision were never contained in the Agreement. Presumptions provided for in this Agreement can only be overcome through clear and convincing evidence by the party opposing the presumption, and a presumption will not apply if its application would make the clause or restriction where it would be applied void, illegal, or otherwise unenforceable.

(e) Non-Waiver. The failure of any Party, whether purposeful or otherwise, to exercise in any instance any right, power, or privilege under this Agreement or under law shall not constitute a waiver of the same or any other right, power, or privilege in any other instance. Any waiver by the Company or by Employee must be in writing and signed by either Employee, if Employee is seeking to waive any of his or her rights under this Agreement, or by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, if the Company is seeking to waive any of its rights under this Agreement.

(f) Modification. No modification of this Agreement shall be valid unless made in a writing signed by both parties hereto, wherein specific reference is made to this Agreement; provided, however, that I agree the Company may unilaterally amend or modify this Agreement to rescind or reduce the scope of any restriction applicable to me through written notice to me at any time.

(g) Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon Employee, Employee's heirs, executors and administrators, and upon the Company, and its successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of the Company, and its successors and assigns. This Agreement may not be assigned by Employee. As defined herein, "Affiliate" refers to any legal entity or organization that is directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controlling, controlled by, or under common ownership or control with TaskUs, or a successor thereof. This Agreement shall automatically inure the benefit of, and may be enforced by TaskUs Holdings, LLC, the Company, Affiliates, and their successors, and assigns, who have a protectable interest covered by the Agreement. If Employee's employment is transferred from the undersigned Company entity to an Affiliate, the Affiliate will assume the same position and rights as the original employer Company under this Agreement without the need for any further agreement by me. I agree to the assignment of this Agreement by Company and all rights and obligations hereunder, including, but not limited to, an assignment in connection with any merger, sale, transfer, or acquisition consummated by the Company, its parent, or any of their Affiliates, or relating to all or part of their assets.

(h) Other Agreements Survive. The obligations of the Employee under this Agreement shall be independent of, and unaffected by, and shall not affect, other agreements, if any, which apply to the my business activities during and/or subsequent to my employment by the Company. The obligations under this Agreement also shall survive any changes made in the future to my employment terms, including but not limited to changes in salary, benefits, bonus plans, job title and job responsibilities.

(i) Acknowledgment. I acknowledge that I am entering into this Agreement knowingly, and have been advised to consult legal counsel to assist me in understanding this Agreement before entering into it if needed. In addition to the provisions above, Employee expressly acknowledges and understands TaskUs may and intends to fully prosecute any violation of confidentiality or breach of this Agreement at its sole discretion and pursue any and all claims for damages against Employee for any alleged violation hereof to the fullest extent of law.

If (and only if) it is required by controlling state law for the restriction to be enforceable, the post-employment restriction on Employee's use of Confidential Information that does not constitute either a Trade Secret or Third-Party Confidential Information will expire three years after my Termination Date so long as I have not retained copies or re-created copies of same in violation of this Agreement. Trade Secret information will have no such time limit and will remain protected for as long as the information would qualify as a trade secret absent this Agreement. Third Party Confidential Information will remain protected for as long as the agreements and any applicable laws and regulations related to such information (such as regulations concerning privacy of personal identifying information) provide for protection.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have knowingly and voluntarily caused this Agreement to be executed as of the date set forth below.

Date: 09/14/2026

Employee Name: Brendan Nforbi

Employee Signature: {{BigSig_es_:signer1:signature:dimension(width=65mm, height=16mm)}}

By: TaskUs Holdings, Inc.

EXHIBIT A
EXCLUDED INVENTIONS

TO: TaskUs, Inc.
FROM: Brendan Nforbi
DATE: 09/14/2026

1. Excluded Inventions Disclosure. Except as listed in Section 2 below, the following is a complete list of all Excluded Inventions:

{{[]}} No Excluded Inventions.

{{[]}} See below:

{{[]}} Additional sheets attached.

2. Due to a prior confidentiality agreement , I cannot complete the disclosure under Section I above with respect to the Excluded Inventions generally listed below, the intellectual property rights and duty of confidentiality with respect to which I owe to the following party(ies) :

Excluded Invention(s)	Party(ies)	Relationship
{{largeField1_es_:signer1:multiline(4)}}	{{largeField2_es_:signer1:multiline(4)}}	{{largeField3_es_:signer1:multiline(4)}}
{{largeField4_es_:signer1:multiline(4)}}	{{largeField5_es_:signer1:multiline(4)}}	{{largeField6_es_:signer1:multiline(4)}}
{{largeField7_es_:signer1:multiline(4)}}	{{largeField8_es_:signer1:multiline(4)}}	{{largeField9_es_:signer1:multiline(4)}}

{{[]}} Additional sheets attached.

APPENDIX A
STATE-SPECIFIC MODIFICATIONS

Depending on the state law that applies to me, the Agreement shall be modified as follows:

Alabama. If Alabama law controls, then: The Employee Nonsolicit the definition of Covered Employees will be limited to those who are employees in a position uniquely essential to the management, organization, or service of the business (such as an employee involved in management or significant client servicing).

California. If I primarily reside or work for the Company in California, then: Nothing in this Agreement will require me to adjudicate outside of California a claim arising in California or be applied so as to deprive me of the substantive protection of California law with respect to a controversy arising in California. The restrictions provided for in Section 4 (Non-Solicitation of Employees) shall be limited so that they only prohibit me from engaging in activity that involves the unauthorized use of Trade Secrets. The IP Holdover Clause will not be applicable to me. The remedies provided for under Section 6 will be limited to comply with California law and will not deprive me of any procedural or substantive right I would otherwise have in a legal proceeding with respect to a contract dispute. The jury trial waiver in Section 12(b) will not be applicable to me. Nothing in the Agreement shall be construed to prohibit me from disclosing information about unlawful acts in the workplace, such as harassment or discrimination or any other conduct that I have reason to believe is unlawful.

Colorado. If I primarily reside or work for the Company in Colorado, then: This Agreement does not prohibit disclosure of information that arises from general training, knowledge, skill, or experience, whether gained on the job or otherwise, information that is readily ascertainable to the public, or information that I otherwise have a right to disclose as legally protected conduct. Nothing in this Agreement limits or prevents me from disclosing information about workplace health and safety practices or hazards or limits my ability or the ability of another employee or prospective employee to disclose or discuss, either orally or in writing, any alleged discriminatory or unfair employment practice.

District of Columbia. If the law of the District of Columbia controls and either (i) I spend more than half my work time working for the Company in the District of Columbia, or (ii) I am based in the District of Columbia and do not spend the majority of my work time working in another jurisdiction; then: Nothing in this Agreement or any Company policy (including but not limited to the restrictions in Section 3 (Duty of Loyalty)) restricts me from having additional outside employment or contract work so long as the outside work does not create a conflict of interest, result in disclosure or use of Confidential Information, or impair the Company's ability to comply with obligations it may have under applicable contracts or regulations that involve a government entity. I will notify the Company prior to accepting any outside employment or contract work so it can be evaluated for compliance with this Agreement and Company policy.

Illinois. If I am entering into this Agreement to be an Illinois employee, then: If I reside in Illinois at the time this Agreement is entered into, then as independently adequate consideration for the Employee Nonsolicit, the Employee Nonsolicit will not be or become applicable unless or until I have, after executing this Agreement, either (i) been employed with the Company for two (2) years, (ii) received enhanced compensation package or raise with a value of $1,000 (less taxes and withholdings) or more, or (iii) received a payment of $1,000 (less taxes and withholdings) or more as additional special consideration for having signed this Agreement, which shall supplement and not replace or eliminate the value and sufficiency of the remaining professional and financial benefits of my position as consideration. I am not entering into or bound by the Noninterference, Employee Nonsolicit and Customer Nonsolicit covenants unless or until my actual or expected annualized rate of earnings with the Company exceed $45,000 per year (or $47,500 per year beginning on January 1, 2027, $50,000 per year beginning on January 1, 2032, and $52,500 per year beginning on January 1, 2037). Nothing in this Agreement will deprive me of any rights I may have under the Illinois Workplace Transparency Act (820 ILCS 96/1-25). In addition to the other forms of Protected Conduct under Section 11 of the Agreement, I understand that nothing in the Agreement prohibits reporting or opposing any conduct I reasonably believe to be an unlawful practice actionable under state or federal employment law including those enforced by the Illinois Department of Human Rights, the Illinois Department of Labor, the Illinois Labor Relations Board, the U.S. Department of Labor, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, or National Labor Relations Board. I also understand that nothing in the Agreement prohibits me from making any truthful statements or disclosures required by law, regulation, or legal process. I further understand that nothing in the Agreement restricts my right to engage in concerted activity to address work-related issues.

Minnesota. If I primarily reside or work for the Company in Minnesota, then: The restrictions in the Agreement shall be interpreted and applied as "a nonsolicitation agreement, or agreement restricting the ability to use client or contact lists, or solicit customers of the employer [Company]" within the scope and meaning of this phrase as it is used in Minnesota Statutes chapter 181.988 (referencing "Covenants Not To Compete") (the "Minnesota Act"). The parties do not intend for the Agreement to impose upon Employee any post-employment restriction that would be considered a "Covenant not to compete" as defined in the Minnesota Act. Nothing in this Agreement will require me to adjudicate outside of Minnesota a claim arising in Minnesota or deprive me of the substantive protection of Minnesota law with respect to any matter covered by the Minnesota Act.

Missouri. If Missouri law controls, then: The Employee Nonsolicit covenant will be modified so that it will not apply if I am an employee who provides only secretarial or clerical services.

Oregon. If Oregon law controls, then: Nothing in this Agreement prevents me from disclosing or discussing conduct (a) that constitutes discrimination prohibited by ORS 659A.030 (Discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, marital status, age or expunged juvenile record prohibited), including conduct that constitutes sexual assault, or by ORS 659A.082 (Discrimination against person for service in uniformed service prohibited) or 659A.112 (Employment discrimination), and (b) that occurred between employees or between an employer and an employee in the workplace or at a work-related event that is off the employment premises and coordinated by or through the employer, or between an employer and an employee off the employment premises.

Washington. If I am employed as a Washington based employee of the Company, then: In the event I am paid less than two times the applicable minimum wage under Washington law, nothing in this Agreement or any Company policy (including but not limited to the restrictions in Section 3 (Duty of Loyalty)) restricts me from working for another employer, working as an independent contractor, or being self-employed so long as the outside work does not (i) raise issues of safety for me, coworkers, or the public, (ii) interfere with the reasonable and normal scheduling expectations of the Company, or (iii) violate an otherwise applicable obligation I would have to the Company under existing law, including the common law duty of loyalty and laws preventing direct conflicts of interest and any corresponding policies addressing such obligations. The Employee Nonsolicit covenant will be modified so that it will only prohibit me from soliciting a Covered Employee to leave (meaning terminate) his, her, or their employment with the Company. Nothing in the Agreement prohibits disclosure or discussion of conduct I reasonably believe to be illegal discrimination, illegal harassment, illegal retaliation, a wage and hour violation, or sexual assault, or that is recognized as against a clear mandate of public policy, or the disclosure of the existence of a settlement involving any such event or conduct.

If my primary place of employment is not in one of the states identified above, I understand that no state-specific modification will apply to me; provided, however, that it is intent of the Parties that the Agreement and its restrictions shall only be construed and applied to the extent that such enforcement would not violate controlling law that governs the Parties' relationship.

Mutual Arbitration Agreement ("MAA")

TaskUs, Inc. (the "Company," as further defined below) and the individual ("Individual") (collectively, the "parties") voluntarily and knowingly agree as follows:

1. Application of this Agreement: The parties agree and stipulate this MAA is governed by the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA"), 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq. and evidences a transaction involving commerce. However, to the maximum extent permitted by law, if the FAA is held to not apply, then (i) this MAA shall be governed by the Texas Arbitration Act, as the Company is headquartered in Texas; and (ii) if Texas state law is held to not apply, then this MAA shall be governed by the arbitration statute of the state in which Individual last worked for the Company (or if Individual never worked for the Company, the state in which Individual initially applied for work with the Company) if such statute would permit individual arbitration, it being the express intent of the parties to allow for individual arbitration to the maximum extent possible.

For all claims covered by this MAA, Individual and the Company waive all rights to bring such claims in court and waive all rights to trial in court before a judge or jury. Instead, the Company and Individual (on behalf of Individual and Individual's heirs, spouse, successors, assigns, representatives, and agents) agree all employment-related legal disputes and claims identified below shall be determined exclusively by final and binding individual arbitration.

2. Covered Claims: Except as provided below, claims subject to this MAA are all legal disputes or claims, past, present, or future, the Company may have against Individual or Individual may have against the Company pertaining to, relating to, or arising from any aspect of Individual's employment or independent contractor relationship with the Company, whether pursuant to federal, state, or local law, including any application for or termination of employment or independent contractor relationship; background check form or process; overtime or other compensation; independent contractor or overtime exemption status; working conditions; discrimination, harassment, or retaliation; breach of express or implied contract or fiduciary duty; trade secrets, unfair competition, or negligence, defamation, or other tort or common law claim arising out of or relating to your application, selection, employment, independent contractor status, or termination (collectively, "Covered Claims"). Covered Claims subject to this MAA include such claims against the Company or the Company's parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, divisions, successors, assigns, or joint ventures; any entity with which any such entity is alleged to be a joint or co-employer; and each of their respective clients, customers, owners, directors, officers, employees, or agents, whether current, former, or future, as all these individuals and entities are expressly acknowledged by the parties to be able to enforce this Agreement, with respect to employment-related disputes. The term "Company" encompasses these individuals and entities to allow them to obtain the full benefits of this MAA. Nothing herein shall be interpreted to suggest any particular entity or person is or will be Individual's employer or joint employer.

3. Excluded Claims: Excluded from this MAA are claims: (a) constituting sexual harassment or sexual assault disputes as defined by the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA"); (b) by Individual for workers' compensation benefits

(although retaliation claims are Covered Claims), unemployment benefits, or benefits under a plan or collective bargaining agreement that provides its own process for dispute resolution; (c) by either party seeking only a provisional remedy in a court of competent jurisdiction; all determinations of final relief, however, will be decided in arbitration, including on the ground that an arbitration award may be rendered ineffectual without provisional relief; (d) for which this MAA would be invalid or prohibited under federal law (but if such a non-arbitrable claim subsequently becomes arbitrable, it then shall be subject to this MAA); (e) to enforce this MAA, compel arbitration, or enforce, modify, or vacate an arbitrator's award[1]; (f) filed with a federal, state, or local administrative agency such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, National Labor Relations Board, or similar agency, although Individual knowingly and voluntarily waives the right to file, or participate or obtain relief in, a lawsuit against the Company filed in a court, except as described herein. Nothing in this MAA prevents or excuses a party from satisfying any conditions precedent and/or exhausting administrative remedies under applicable law before bringing a claim in arbitration.

4. To the maximum extent permitted by law, the parties agree and stipulate that (a) if a party brings one or more Covered Claims and one or more claims that are not Covered Claims, the latter shall be stayed until the former are fully arbitrated; (b) if a court denies a motion to compel arbitration filed by either party in whole or in part, all court proceedings on the claims at issue shall be stayed until any appeals of the order denying the motion are exhausted; and (c) if Individual brings a sexual harassment or sexual assault dispute (as defined in the FAA), all Covered Claims shall be presented in (or if not presented in, severed into) a separate proceeding from the sexual harassment or sexual assault claims.

5. A party wishing to initiate arbitration must notify the other party in writing by hand delivery or certified mail. The notice should identify the party requesting arbitration by name, address, and telephone number; the facts on which the claim is based; the persons involved; the date and location of facts related to the claim; the law(s) allegedly violated; and the remedy requested. Notice to the Company must be sent to TaskUs, Inc., 1650 Independence Drive, Suite 100, New Braunfels, Texas 78132, Attention: TaskUs Legal Department. Notice to Individual must be sent to Individual's most recent residence address in the Company's records.

6. Within 30 days of receipt of a notice of arbitration, the parties shall attempt to agree on an arbitrator. If they are unable to do so, the party requesting arbitration shall submit the matter to the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), and an arbitrator shall be selected pursuant to AAA's selection procedure, unless the matter is part of a "Mass Claim" (as defined below), in which case the "Mass Claims" paragraph below applies. Other than in Mass Claims, the arbitrator shall administer the arbitration according to AAA's Employment Arbitration Rules (or successor rules) (which can be requested from the Company or found at www.adr.org), this MAA, and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 68 ("Offer of Judgment"). If AAA's rules are inconsistent with this MAA, this MAA shall govern.

7. Except as required by paragraphs 8-10 and applicable law, the arbitrator shall have the exclusive authority to resolve any dispute regarding the enforceability, applicability, or interpretation of this MAA. The arbitration will be held in or near the city in which Individual last worked for (or if Individual never worked for the Company, the city in which Individual initially applied for work with) the Company. The parties have the right to file dispositive motions and post-hearing briefs. The arbitrator's authority is limited to determining the claims in dispute consistent with controlling law. The Arbitrator shall apply the substantive federal, state, or local law applicable to the claims asserted. The Arbitrator may award any remedy to which a party is entitled under applicable law, and remedies will be limited to those that would be available to a party in his or her individual capacity for the claims presented to the Arbitrator, and no remedies available to an individual under applicable law will be forfeited. Consistent with the expedited nature of arbitration, the arbitrator shall have the authority to issue subpoenas to compel the production of documents during discovery and the attendance of witnesses at the arbitration hearing; make reasonable efforts to conduct the arbitration hearing within six months of the arbitrator's appointment but has discretion to extend this time upon a showing of good cause; and render a written award setting forth findings of fact and conclusions of law. Judgment upon the arbitrator's award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

8. Class And Collective Action Waiver*. The Company and Individual agree to bring any claim on an individual basis and not on a class and/or collective action basis. Accordingly,

(a) There will be no right or authority for any dispute to be brought, heard or arbitrated as a class action and the Arbitrator will have no authority to hear or preside over any such claim ("Class Action Waiver"). The Class Action Waiver shall be severable from this Agreement if there is a final judicial determination that the Class Action Waiver is invalid, unenforceable, unconscionable, void or voidable. In such instances, the class action must be litigated in a civil court of competent jurisdiction—not in arbitration—but the portion of the Class Action Waiver that is enforceable shall be enforced in arbitration.

(b) There will be no right or authority for any dispute to be brought, heard or arbitrated as a collective action and the Arbitrator will have no authority to hear or preside over any such claim ("Collective Action Waiver"). The Collective Action Waiver shall be severable from this Agreement if there is a final judicial determination that the Collective Action Waiver is invalid, unenforceable, unconscionable, void or voidable. In such instances, the collective action must be litigated in a civil court of competent jurisdiction—not in arbitration—but the portion of the Collective Action Waiver that is enforceable shall be enforced in arbitration.

9. California Private Attorneys General Act ("PAGA") Individual Action Requirement. The Company and Individual agree to arbitrate PAGA claims on an individual basis only. Therefore, any claim by an Individual under PAGA to recover unpaid wages, civil penalties, or any other individual relief must be arbitrated under this Agreement. The Company and Individual also agree Individual's non-individual PAGA claims will be stayed and Individual will not pursue any such claims in Court until after the Arbitrator, and not any court, issues a final and written determination as to Individual's status as an "aggrieved employee," and, then, only if the determination is that you were "aggrieved." The preceding sentence applies even if Individual seeks to assert only a representative claim without including an individual PAGA claim and/or if Individual disclaims the individual PAGA claim. The Arbitrator is without authority to preside over any PAGA claim by Individual on behalf of any other person or joined by or consolidated with another person's PAGA claim. This PAGA Individual Action Requirement clause will be severable from this Agreement if there is a final judicial determination that it is invalid, unenforceable, unconscionable, void or voidable. In such case, the PAGA action must be litigated in a civil court of competent jurisdiction—not in arbitration—but the portion of the PAGA Individual Action Requirement that is enforceable will be enforced in arbitration.

10. Mass Claims: If 20 or more individuals seek to initiate arbitrations with the Company asserting Covered Claims that arise out of similar facts and raise similar legal issues and counsel for the individuals bringing the claims are the same or coordinated ("Mass Claims"), these additional procedures shall apply. Individual understands that choosing to pursue a Mass Claim may delay adjudication, but if these Mass Claims procedures apply, any applicable statute of limitations shall be tolled from the date Individual provides written notice to the Company that Individual is asserting a claim that is a Mass Claim.

a. The party requesting arbitration shall submit the matter to National Arbitration and Mediation ("NAM"), and arbitrators shall be selected pursuant to NAM's Mass Filing Supplemental Dispute Resolution Rules and Procedures ("Supplemental Rules"). Arbitrators shall administer Mass Claims according to NAM's Employment Rules and Procedures (or successor rules) and the Supplemental Rules (which can be requested from the Company or found at www.namadr.com), this MAA, and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 68 ("Offer of Judgment"). If NAM's rules are inconsistent with this MAA, this MAA shall govern. If an arbitration that would be part of a Mass Claims proceeding was submitted to AAA and no arbitrator has been selected for the matter, the parties agree to withdraw such arbitration from AAA, re-submit it according to this section, and treat the statute of limitations as tolled during the time the matter was pending with AAA.

b. Counsel initiating Mass Claims and counsel for the Company each shall select up to 10 arbitration proceedings per side to be filed in and proceed in individual arbitration in bellwether proceedings, with each arbitration proceeding assigned to a different arbitrator and proceeding expeditiously. No other arbitration proceeding of Mass Claims may be filed or deemed filed in arbitration, neither the arbitration administrator (if any) nor any arbitrator is authorized to accept or administer arbitrations commenced in violation of these procedures, and no arbitration costs or fees shall be due other than for those arbitration proceedings selected by the parties to proceed as bellwether proceedings. If the parties are unable to resolve the Mass Claims, after the conclusion of the above bellwether proceedings, each side may select up to 10 additional arbitration proceedings per side to be filed in and proceed in individual arbitration in a second set of bellwether proceedings, with each arbitration proceeding assigned to a different arbitrator and proceeding expeditiously. This process shall continue with up to 20 individual arbitration proceedings at a time until the parties are able to resolve all of the Mass Claims, either through settlement or individual arbitration. Any party may designate and rely on written discovery responses or deposition testimony from one such proceeding in other such proceedings in lieu of responding to substantially similar discovery requests in substantially similar proceedings.

c. If multiple individuals with Mass Claims accept offers of judgment resolving their individual claims and providing that reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees, expenses, and costs, if any, will be decided by an arbitrator, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, such issue for all the Mass Claims so resolved will be submitted to a single arbitrator selected by the parties solely for such purpose. Such arbitrator's authority is limited to the sole issue of deciding the amount of reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees, expenses, and costs, if any, to be awarded to each individual who has accepted an offer of judgment to resolve a Mass Claim, in accordance with the terms of the applicable offer of judgment and legal standards.

11. The Company will pay all costs unique to arbitration, including the arbitration fees and expenses required under this MAA. However, if Individual initiates a claim, Individual shall be responsible for contributing an amount equal to the filing fee in Individual's home state, unless the arbitrator determines such fee should be waived. Invoices from any arbitration service or arbitrator issued in conformance with this MAA shall be due 60 days following receipt of the invoice. Except as provided in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 68 or as determined by the arbitrator in accordance with applicable law, each party shall pay its own attorneys' fees and any costs that are not unique to the arbitration. The arbitrator may award reasonable fees and costs or any portion thereof to the prevailing party, in accordance with applicable law.

12. This MAA is the complete agreement between the parties on the subjects herein and supersedes any other understandings on such subjects; however, should this Agreement be found to be unenforceable, for any reason, then such prior agreement(s) shall remain in place and survive to afford the Company the greatest protection allowed by law. No other representations are being relied upon by either party. This Agreement will survive the termination of your employment, with respect to any employment-related claims. Subject to Paragraphs 8 and 9, (which include their own severability provisions), in the event any portion of this Agreement is deemed unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement will be enforceable to the maximum extent permitted by law. This MAA shall be construed as a whole, according to its fair meaning, and not for or against any party. Additionally, this MAA does not constitute a guarantee of employment for any fixed period or alter the at-will nature of any employment relationship.

Individual has read and understands this MAA and may consult with an attorney of Individual's choosing regarding it. By signing below, Individual is knowingly and voluntarily agreeing to the terms of this MAA and waiving the right to file a lawsuit against the Company or proceed in court or in front of a judge or jury, except as described herein.

AGREED:

Date: 09/14/2026

{{BigSig_es_:signer1:signature:dimension(width=65mm, height=16mm)}}

_____

Individual's Signature

Date: 09/14/2026

Brendan Nforbi

Individual's Printed Name

Company Representative's Signature

Shelly Porter
VP, People Operations (Americas)

Company Representative's Printed Name and Title

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR TASKUS EMPLOYEES

1. PURPOSE

This Privacy Notice ("Notice") tells you what personal information TaskUs collects about you within the scope of your employment with TaskUs, why we need it, how we use it, what protections are in place to keep it secure and your rights under applicable privacy laws. As the TaskUs entities may expand, there may be additional data flows required and this Notice will be updated.

2. APPLICABILITY

This Notice applies to TaskUs, its subsidiaries, affiliates and all its employees, directors, officers, staff and contractors.
If you provide personal information, or TaskUs collects personal information from you, in a different context, such as when you access our public website or register for TaskVerse to work as an independent contractor, the collection, Processing and disclosure of that personal information will be addressed by a separate privacy notice, which you will receive at the appropriate time.

3. DATA INTEGRITY AND PURPOSE LIMITATION

TaskUs will use personal information only in ways that are compatible with the purposes for which it was collected or subsequently authorized by you. TaskUs will take reasonable steps to ensure that personal information is relevant to its intended use and is otherwise accurate, complete, and current. However, you must notify TaskUs if your personal information becomes outdated or is incorrect so that it can be corrected within our systems.

4. REQUIREMENTS

4.1 Key Terms

"Data Controller" is the person or entity who determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data and is ultimately responsible for the lawfulness of the data processing.

"Personal Information" includes any information relating to you or an identifiable natural person and including names, contact details, identification numbers, and/or any factors relating to a person's identity including information which may be protected under the privacy or data protection laws of the country in which you are employed.

"Processing" means any operation performed on Personal Information, whether manual or automated, such as collecting, recording, organizing, storing, altering, retrieving, consulting, using, disclosing, combining, blocking, erasing, or destroying the data.

4.2 Personal Information Collected

During your application process and employment with us, we will collect and Process personal information about you and your dependents, beneficiaries and other individuals whose personal information has been provided to us. We collect your personal information from a variety of sources, but mainly directly from you. You may provide this information directly to our personnel, through identification documentation, by your participation in HR processes, through emails you send to us, or through verbal communication that may be recorded electronically or manually. In addition, we also may obtain information about you from performance assessments or other similar reviews. The types of personal information that we may collect and Process about you include the below, to the extent it qualifies as personal information in your jurisdiction of residence:

1. Personal identity information, including your full name, Social Security number or other government issued identification number, personal email address, personal phone numbers, signature, driver's license number or state identification number, race, sex/gender, date of birth, age, postal address, unique personal identifier (employee identification number), marital status/civil partnership status, date of hire, geolocation, preferred language, resume, ethnic background, work authorization status, birth location, birth country, and/or nationality.
2. Information about your role as our employee, including your date of first employment, absence dates and details, vacation requests, sickness records, inactive dates, employment status history, pay or salary rate, bonus, pay increase or decrease details, termination details, business unit, function, location, pay group, cost center, standard hours, salary administration plan, position level, salary frequency, disciplinary actions, employee accomplishments, assessments, training data, company computer and device assets used, performance management reviews, employee change forms, qualifications, required compliance courses and acknowledgements, data involved with security and/or privacy incidents, employee ID and/or pension or retirement fund participation.
3. Financial information, including your account name and number, paycheck information, tax information and garnishment information for purposes of administering payroll and/or providing expense reimbursements.
4. Background and personal history, including your educational background and educational records; employment history; disability, military or veteran status; requests for family care leave; ongoing education and training courses; requests for disability leave; information on products and services purchased; ancestry information; behavioral information; attitude information; abilities; and/or preferences.
5. Information for the administration of employee benefits, including marital status; health insurance information; beneficiary identifiers; health insurance plan and premium information; health insurance claim number; life insurance plan and premium information; gender; date, cause, location, and description of injuries; product liability information including brand name, manufacturer and injury; self-insurance information; policy holder name; doing-business-as name; tax-payer identification number; plan or insurance type; policy number; claim number; office code; plan contact information, including name, phone number or department name; no-fault insurance limit; date of exhaustion; information regarding your representative including full name and firm, taxpayer identification number, mailing address, phone number, and extension; and/or information regarding ongoing responsibility for medicals, including date and amount.

6. Photos, videos and audio recordings of you, including CCTV footage, photographs for employee identification and employee profiles, and/or recordings of work-related conversations.
7. Illness or diagnosis information to comply with laws and guidelines from applicable federal, state and local governmental authorities and public health entities such as the Centers For Disease Control And Prevention; including your exposure, or potential exposure, to or vaccination against illnesses; including positive or negative test results, the date on which you tested positive or negative, the proof of vaccination against an illness, and the date(s) on which you came into the office or otherwise interacted with TaskUs property or personnel.
8. Information about third parties, including the names, home addresses, e-mail addresses, marital status, health insurance information, Social Security number or other government issued identification number and/or dates of birth of your dependents and beneficiaries. We may also collect emergency contact information and next of kin information. By providing us with personal information of a third-party, such as your family and/or next of kin, you agree that you have the requisite consent and/or permission to share such information with us.

4.3 Purpose of Collection

Generally, TaskUs collects, Processes and discloses your personal information to administer and facilitate your employment with us or the review of your employment application. However, please review the below sections for more information on how TaskUs will Process your personal information.

4.3.1 Recruitment Purposes:

A.Your application*:* when you apply for a job with TaskUs (whether you already work for us or not), you will be asked to provide Personal Information to support your application and to enable us to determine your eligibility and suitability for the role. This will include the Personal Information we need to enable us to select the right candidate for the role, and may include things such as career history, employment details, educational qualifications, and skills. If you are successful in the employment process any Personal Information provided to us may then form part of your HR record which we would maintain for the duration of the employment.

B. Pre-employment checks*:* prior to you starting work with us or changing jobs within TaskUs, we may use your Personal Information to carry out pre-employment checks. Where your local law allows, this may include criminal record checks and right to work checks, and to verify references. We only collect this information if it is allowed under local laws.

4.3.2 Human Resources ("HR") functions, business administration purposes, worldwide compensation:

If permissible under applicable local law and regulation, we will use your Personal Information for the purposes notified below:

A. To administer your pay and any associated compensation*:* We use your bank details and social security number (or similar) and details of earnings from previous employment so that we can pay your salary, make pension deductions, and pay tax and national insurance contributions.

B. To manage other aspects of your employment relationship: The Personal Information we collect and use for this purpose will include (or be included in information about your performance at work (e.g. appraisals, development notes and plans, records of your training and other compliance requirements), workforce management, succession or other forecasting information, information about absence history, requests for unpaid leave, accident at work records, accident reports and notes of management interviews.

- To process employment or work-related claims: Including grievances, disciplinary, personal injury, and compensation claims.
- To contact you or your nominated contact in the case of an emergency (either yours or ours): We will ask you to provide us with home telephone numbers, mobile numbers, and the names of people we can contact in an emergency. Where you nominate a contact for emergencies (e.g. a friend or relative) please ensure you advise them of this arrangement and where applicable, get their consent.
- Pensions: We collect and use your Personal Information so that we can administer your pension or any other ongoing entitlements once you have stopped working for us.

4.3.3 Finance and accounting:

Business expenses: We may use your Personal Information such as bank details to pay your expenses or in respect of company car allocation or fuel allowances and to comply with our legal reporting obligations for tax and accounting

4.3.4 Information Technology ("IT") Administration purposes:

Administration of necessary technology assets: so that you can use these IT systems of either TaskUs our service provider to be able to do your job, we and/or third parties may need your Personal Information to authorize, grant, administer, monitor and terminate your access to, or use of these systems. Your Personal Information may also be required so that we can perform other IT related activities such as reporting, managing and resolving faults or other IT issues and for the administration, support, development, testing, management and maintenance of our and/or third-party IT systems.

4.3.5 Security and business continuity purposes, legal and compliance:

A. Monitoring the use of communications services: we provide communications services and facilities, including enterprise Gmail & G Suit, other enterprise software, telephones and the internet to you for business use. Your use of these communications services and facilities must be appropriate to protect our reputation. Subject to local laws or regulations, we may block access to certain sites and may monitor, record, and analyze your usage of the communications services and facilities that we provide to you in connection with your work. Where you call one of our internal helpdesks, those calls may be recorded for training and quality purposes.

B. CCTV: at some locations where allowed by law we deploy CCTV to enhance the security of our property and to protect the people who work at these sites. CCTV will be monitored for security reasons, for evidence of misuse, or where we have grounds for suspecting a criminal or serious disciplinary offense has been committed.

C. Physical Access Control: You may be provided with an access card or biometric access (as applicable in your jurisdiction) to enable you to enter locations to do your job. This information is stored on secure systems and the use of the access card may be monitored for security compliance and used in the event of an emergency. It may be used for systematically recording the presence or absence of all employees. Your Personal Information may also be required by third parties or clients if you need access to third party or client's locations, facilities, records, property, and/or infrastructure to do your job.

D. Prevention and detection of crime: in the rare event that we have reasonable grounds for suspecting criminal activity or that another serious disciplinary offense has been committed, we may, subject to local law and regulation, carry out monitoring. Such monitoring is only used as part of a specific investigation and must first be authorized by the General Counsel or the Director of Privacy.

E. Legal and Compliance: we may use your personal information as may be necessary to meet our legal, statutory or regulatory obligations, comply with applicable law, or to detect, investigate, defend, bring or otherwise address legal claims and issues, such as:

a. To comply with our legal obligations, including where necessary to abide by law, regulation or contract, or to respond to a court order, administrative or judicial process, including, but not limited to, a subpoena, government audit or search warrant.
b. In response to lawful requests by public authorities (including for national security or law enforcement purposes).
c. As necessary to establish, exercise or defend against potential, threatened or actual litigation.
d. Where necessary to protect the vital interests of another person.

F. Corporate transaction: we may process and/or disclose personal information connected with the sale, bankruptcy, assignment or other transfer of all or part of our business.

5. WHO HAS ACCESS TO YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

We take care to limit access to your personal information to only those who require such access to perform their tasks and duties, and/or to approve service providers who have a legitimate purpose in doing so. Whenever we permit a third party to access personal information, we will implement appropriate measures to ensure the information is used in a manner consistent with this Notice and that the security and confidentiality of the information is maintained. We may share your personal information with:

A. The parent company, subsidiaries and affiliates of the Company who have a need to access your Personal Information.

B. Your manager may hold local records on performance, notes of one to one interview, emergency contact numbers, etc. He/she will also be able to access information we hold about you on our HR systems, which includes general job-related information, current pay, and absence history.

C. Dedicated HR, Finance and other professionals will also have access to information about you, for example, to enable them to manage the needs of the business, provide specialist support to management and to calculate pay and bonus entitlements.

D. Where you are asked to provide information relating to ethnicity and disability, and you provide it, access to this is restricted to a much smaller group who need to know this information to enable us to comply with our Global Privacy Policy or its legal obligations. Our service providers, who help us administer your employment and our relationship with you, including our database hosting vendor, human resource platform provider, employee intranet platform provider, employee background check provider, employee benefits providers and administrators, travel and accommodations vendor, IT and technical services provider, SMS texting platform provider or with companies who provide us with employee expense and payroll support services.

E. Governmental, legal, jurisdictional, or regulatory authorities, as may be necessary for us to comply with our legal, statutory or regulatory obligations.

F. Other entity(ies) in connection with the sale, bankruptcy, assignment or other transfer of all or part of our business.

Where we need to share your Personal Information, we will do so in line with this Notice and our legal obligations, including ensuring that the third party we are sharing it with has appropriate technical and organizational measures and processes in place to keep your Personal Information secure, and that they only use it in accordance with our instructions. In some cases, Personal Information about you may be provided to third parties if you have given your prior consent to such disclosure or if we are required to do so to comply with a court order, law enforcement obligation, or some other legal requirement.

6. Security Control Measures

We will take necessary and appropriate security control measures to prevent leakage, loss, or damage of personal information. The following is an outline of such security control measures.

A. Policy

In order to ensure the proper handling of Personal Information, we have formulated an Information Security Policy regarding "compliance with related laws, regulations, guidelines, etc." and "contact point for questions and complaints."

B. Establishment of rules for Handling Personal Information
For each stage of Personal Information acquisition, use, storage, provision, deletion, disposal, etc., we have formulated rules on the Handling of Personal Information, including Handling methods, persons in charge, and their duties.

C. Organizational security control measures
Besides appointing a person or team in charge of the Handling of Personal Information, the scope of Personal Information handled by employees and the scope of Personal Information handled by such employees are clarified. A reporting and communication system to the person in charge is established in case any fact or sign of violation of the appropriate data privacy regulation regarding the handling of Personal Information is detected. In addition to regular self-inspections of the handling of Personal Information, audits are conducted by other departments and outside parties.

D. Personnel security control measures
Regular mandatory training is provided to employees on important points regarding the handling of Personal Information & Information Security.

E. Physical security control measures
In the areas where Personal Information is handled, we control employees' access and restrict the devices they bring into the areas and take measures to prevent unauthorized persons from viewing personal data. In addition, measures are taken to prevent the theft or loss of equipment, electronic media, documents, etc., that handle personal data, and measures are taken to prevent Personal Information from being easily revealed when such equipment, electronic media, etc., are transported, including within the business premises.

F. Technical security control measures
Access control is implemented to limit the scope of the person in charge and the Personal Information databases, etc., to be handled. We have introduced a system to protect information systems that protect Personal Information from unauthorized access from outside or unauthorized software.

G. Understanding the external environment
We handle Personal Information not only in Japan but also within the TaskUs organization overseas. Our security control measures are based on a deep understanding of the regulatory framework and the systems to be implemented for the protection of Personal Information transferred overseas.

7. HOW CAN YOU KEEP YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION ACCURATE AND UP-TO-DATE?

It is important that the Personal Information we hold about you is kept accurate and up-to-date. Please inform us of any change or update to your Personal Information. Speak to your line manager or HR if you are unsure how to update your Personal Information.

8. HOW CAN YOU REQUEST ACCESS TO THE PERSONAL INFORMATION WE HOLD ABOUT YOU?

If you have any questions about the Personal Information that we hold about you we suggest that you speak to your line manager or HR in the first instance.

You have choices about how to manage your Personal Information and what types of communications you receive from us. Please note that we may have a legal obligation to preserve certain data and that we may need to request information from you in order to confirm your identity. This is to ensure that we can locate relevant data and that your Personal Information is not disclosed to a person who does not have a right to receive it. Except where not permissible under local law, you may be required to pay a fee for the administrative cost of providing you with a copy of your data.

For EU Employee: In accordance with the requirements of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, or General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR"), if you are an EU Employee, you have certain rights and may make a "Data Subject Request" to exercise them.

For PH Employee: In accordance with the requirements of Republic Act 10173, or the Data Privacy Act of 2012, if you are a PH Employee, you have certain rights and may make a "Data Subject Request" to exercise them.

Under certain circumstances and as per the applicable data privacy laws, you have the right to: Request access to your Personal Information, Request correction of your Personal Data; Request erasure of your Personal Data; Request cessation of the provision of your Personal Information to third parties, Object to some processing of your Personal Data; Request restriction of processing of your Personal Data; Request the transfer of your Personal Data to you or to a third party; Withdraw your consent; Object to being subject to automated decision-making; or lodge a complaint.

In such an instance, we request that you first contact us directly at privacy@taskus.com to resolve any issue. Please note that we may have legal or other obligations to preserve certain Personal Information which could prevent us from deleting certain Personal Information.

9. INTERNATIONAL TRANSFERS OF DATA

Sometimes we may have to transfer your Personal Information internationally including to countries which may not by law have the same level of data protection as you have in your country. We seek to ensure that the appropriate technical and organizational measures and processes are in place to keep your Personal Information secure, and that it is only used in accordance with our instructions.

The countries to which we may transfer your Personal Information are as follows:

Country Name	System with respect to the protection of Personal Information in the country	Measures that the company takes to protect Personal Information
Global TaskUs Operations including US, EU, South East Asia and all other affiliates/subsidiaries of TaskUs	Encryption and necessary technical and organizational security measures are in place	TaskUs have a data classification and encryption process in place based on business and compliance requirements. We classify them as restricted/confidential, private, and public. All data which is transmitted over an external communication network is sent in an encrypted form. We use TLS 1.2/AES-256 or a VPN or similar software for handling data at rest or in transit. Additionally, Intragroup Data Processing Agreement along with Standard Contractual Clause (SCC) between TaskUs global entities are in place.

10. HOW LONG DO WE KEEP PERSONAL INFORMATION?

We retain Personal Information for as long as you are employed with us or post termination of employment it is necessary to provide the services you have requested and for other legal compliance or essential business purposes as per the applicable data privacy laws such as enforcing our employment contracts, maintaining the security of our services, enforcing our legal rights, or dispute resolution.

11. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

From time to time it may become necessary to update or change our Privacy Notice consistent with changes in data protection laws and TaskUs' privacy program. TaskUs has the discretion to update this Privacy Notice at any time. When we do, we will revise the updated date at the top of this page. We encourage you to periodically check the most current version to stay informed about how we are helping to protect the Personal Information we collect. You acknowledge and agree that it is your responsibility to review this Notice periodically and become aware of modifications. If significant changes are made, we will provide you with appropriate notice through email.

12. CONTACT US

To submit questions or to inquire about our data practices, you can contact us by:

- Filling-out the Consumer Request Form (available on TaskUs website) and sent it in an email to privacy@taskus.com
- Calling us toll-free number at 888-400-TASK
- E-mailing us directly at privacy@taskus.com

Acknowledgement
Privacy Notice Consent and Acknowledgment Form

I, Brendan Nforbi, acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Privacy Notice and that I have read and understood it.

I agree and consent to the processing of my Personal Information in accordance with the above Notices and applicable data privacy laws. I further agree to update my Personal Information as required by the Privacy Notice.

Additionally, I acknowledge that TaskUs may engage in monitoring activities in the workplace as set forth in Section 5.3.5 of the Privacy Notice, including the implementation of CCTV and similar security measures, which is necessary to protect the TaskUs's property and the safety of its employees, staff, contractors and customers, as well as to prevent and detect potential misuse and/or criminal activity. I expressly consent to such activities.
Name of Employee Brendan Nforbi

Signature {{BigSig_es_:signer1:signature:dimension(width=65mm, height=16mm)}}
Date 09/14/2026

Version History

Author / Reviewer	Approver	Version	Date
Manager, Data Privacy	Director, Global Privacy	0.1	May 31,2024